THE DEAD SEA

For ages the Dead Sea was a hoarder rather than a giver; but of late it has experienced a radical change, and has become one of the greatest givers of all time—if not the very greatest.

A pipe has been injected into the Dead Sea, 200 feet below the surface. It is thirty inches in diameter and 2,800 feet long. Through this pipe, with the aid of enormous pumps, the Dead Sea is giving thousands of tons of useful chemicals.

Forty thousand million tons of chemicals are immediately available. And it may be said of this sea, as of the scriptural giver, "Give and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over" (Luke 6:38). For the streams of that region are pouring forty thousand additional tons of potassium chloride, every year, into the sea. So as fast as it is taken out, the content is replenished—and there is no end of this process in sight.

The value of this chemical is so great that it cannot be expressed in dollars and cents—for there isn't that much money!

A learned doctor has said: "All the money ever minted since the days of Julius Caesar would not equal the cost price of this chemical treasure, if it had to be purchased in the mass."—Exchange.

CORRESPONDENCE

233 Aberdeen St.,

Fredericton, N. B.

Dear Highway Friends:

Since last reporting through The Highway, I have finished my pastorate at Beals. It was a privilege indeed to be pastor of that fine Church for three years. The people were surely good to us during our stay with them, and it would be hard to find more faithful people or folk who would use their pastor better. During Wesley's illness they did everything they could to help us. The people of our church and the whole community gave us enough money to pay all the hospital and doctor's bills which amounted to over three hundred dollars. Besides this they gave us a generous amount of money as a farewell gift. We are very grateful to them all for such gifts and all their help and kindness. May God continue to bless them and their new pastor as he takes up the work at Beals.

We have moved to Fredericton and begun our new work here. We covet the prayers of God's people that He will bless our labor and make us a blessing and help to souls.

Yours in Him,

H. E. MULLEN

Dear Highway:

Beulah Camp

We feel that it would be in order for us to write something in reference to the closing of our labors with the church at Fredericton, N. B., after a pastorate of nine years. The Lord has been very gracious to us and we have received many blessings from His bountiful hands, for which we are very thankful. On Monday evening, June 25th, we were taken completely by surprise when a large number of members of the church and congregation and friends gathered at the parsonage to say farewell and extend to us their good wishes for the future. A pleasant time was spent in social chat interspersed with special music. The ladies had prepared a nice lunch after which Mr. O. R. Estey, superintendent of the Sunday School, in a nice speech presented us with a substantial sum of money, for which we tried to voice our thanks and appreciation. Mrs. Estey read a poem suited to the occasion, after which a number spoke words of appreciation, among them being Rev. F. A. Watson, of Marysville, who has been a life-long friend. Blest be the Tie that Binds was sung and Rev. Mr. Watson offered prayer, and the folk departed for their homes, leaving us richer in worldly store and Christian good wishes. Some who were not present remembered us also in a substantial way. We pray God's blessing upon these good folk, and may the church prosper in the coming years. A baptismal service was held on Sunday afternoon, July 1st, when four were immersed in water, and in the evening three of them were received into the membership of the church. We give God the glory for all that has been accomplished. We are taking a vacation for a few months, hoping by the blessing of the Lord to take up active work again. We have now completed over 40 years of active ministry, and we do praise our Heavenly Father for all of His mercies bestowed. We covet your prayers.

Yours for true holiness,

P. J. and MRS. TRAFTON
