THE R. B. YOUTH IN ACTION

Technically, this is the Christmas issue, but we wonder what better greeting we could send to all our young people than a page full of sparkling testimonies from the R. B. group at E. N. C.? Also, what better material for our YOUTH IN ACTION column? For this one issue we feel that a change in the name of the column is to the point. If we use more than our allotted space, maybe the Editor-in-Chief will grant us a special indulgence.

In another early issue we shall present a page of testimonies from our students at the Holiness Bible Institute.

Dear Young People:

I am glad that I can report victory in my soul, for I know that my Redeemer liveth. I count it a blessed privilege to be here at E. N. C. The fellowship with other Christian young folk is inspiring and a blessing to me.

I remember how hard it was for me to take my stand for Christ and to have my devotions among girls who did not know the Lord, when I attended the Resident Training Center. Although I praise Him for keeping me steadfast during that time, I am grateful that He has led me this way.

I am glad that we as a holiness denomination have started a school to teach our youth the Scriptures and the power of God.

Yours in Christ,

AVIS BOLSTRIDGE

Dear Young People:

Since coming to E. N. C. I have learned to appreciate my spiritual values more. The daily chapel services have been an inspiration, and a help to me in my spiritual needs. Working and carrying a college schedule means a drain physically and spiritually, but I am proving God's grace to be sufficient at all times.

I love the Lord! His promise fills my heart right now. He gives me faith to believe His promise found in Phil. 4:13: "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me." I am convinced that if we "wait upon the Lord we shall renew our strength, we shall mount up with wings as eagles, we shall run and not be weary, we shall walk and not faint."

FLOYD FLEMMING

Dear Young People:

Reformed Baptists at E. N. C. are testing and learning for themselves the truth that "Jesus will walk with us" wherever we go. It is a blessing to sense the presence of the same Saviour and Keeper here that we felt on Beulah Camp Ground.

Not only are we finding rich fellowship among Christian faculty members and students, but we are inspired by the knowledge that months spent here are helping to prepare us for additional usefulness in the Lord's service.

I am finding Jesus increasingly near and dear to my own heart. Day by day I am encouraged by further assurance of His never-failing care and grace. His way is abundantly satisfying to me, and I am enthusiastically ready to follow His whole will for my life.

JEAN H. MULLEN

Dear Young People:

Since coming to E. N. C. I feel stronger spiritually. Having to depend more and more on His never-failing resources for spiritual and material needs, I find my faith is stronger. (Phil. 4:19).

I like the college and enjoy studying under some of our own people as well as the other Christian teachers, who have proved themselves a means of blessing.

I enjoyed a visit from Rev. P. J. Trafton, Rev. H. R. Whiting, and Art Ingersoll last month.

Though separated from our work for awhile, we are still praying for you and look forward to reading The Highway for news of the folk back home.

Yours in Christian faith,

LAWSON SAUNDERS

Dear Young People:

Greetings in Jesus' name! Since I came back to school this year, my life has become really rooted and grounded in Christ. The daily chapel services and our prayer services each night after dinner have been times of great blessing to all. God has met with us in an unusual way many times.

I am enjoying my studies this year and I shall never cease to be thankful for the privilege of studying under such godly professors.

I am glad to report, with others, that God is my Saviour, Sanctifier, Satisfier and Keeper, and while life isn't all sunshine, yet God's grace is sufficient for every circumstance. I would ask your prayers that I may be of more service to Him in this corner of the world. God bless you all.

Yours in Him,

RUTH HARDING

Dear Young People:

Just a few lines to let you know that I still have the victory. I feel like praising the Lord these days for full salvation and for what He has meant to me since I have come to E. N. C. I feel indeed that I have travelled farther up the road.

The services here have been a blessing to me, especially the freshmen prayer meetings and chapel services. I count it a privilege to attend E. N. C. and study under professors who know the Lord.

As the Christmas season is drawing on, I have been thinking more and more about our young people at home, and I wish to take this opportunity to wish you all a Merry Christmas, May God bless you.

CONNIE BRUCE

Dear Young People:

While here at E. N. C. I have been much impressed by the deep spirituality of both the professors and my fellow students. Although Saint John is still very dear to me, I feel that E. N. C. has been a stepping stone worth while, and I do not regret having chosen to come.

I have learned that when we have a little talk with Jesus He really undertakes and gives victory. My one purpose is that I shall not take my religion for granted but shall be more like Jesus each day and be a real soul-winner for Him. I praise Him for His saving and sanctifying power and for His daily Presence.

"All that thrills my soul is Jesus,
He is more than life to me.
And the fairest of ten thousand
In my blessed Lord I see."

ELEANOR HAMMOND

Dear Young People:

Truly God is an unfailing Friend and will supply all our needs according to His riches in glory. Since coming here to E. N. C. I have proved that God will make a way when there seems no way. At times when problems seem to surmount us and the prospect seems gloomy I am glad that we can leave everything in God's hands and trust Him to work it all out to our best good. "Praise His name, He does, too."

I like E. N. C. not only because it offers an efficient program of studies to the student, but because it contributes to our spiritual life as well.

I often think of you young people back home in the different churches and I pray that God will be with each one of you.

May I take this opportunity to give to you all a "Very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year."

Sincerely,

LAURENCE MULLEN

GOD'S CARE

Christianity lays all its emphasis on the individual life—no religion has ever placed such a value on human beings. Not a sparrow falleth to the ground without your Father's notice—every hair of your head is numbered. Jesus believed and taught that God was really our Father—that everyone of His children was to Him inexpressibly precious. "Your Heavenly Father knoweth."—William Lyon Phelps.

GREAT IS THY FAITHFULNESS

Thomas O. Chisholm

Great is Thy faithfulness, O God, my Father,
There is no shadow of turning with Thee;
Thou changest not, Thy compassions, they fail not;
As Thou hast been, Thou forever wilt be.

Summer and winter, and springtime and harvest,
Sun, moon, and stars in their courses above,
Join with all nature in manifold witness
To Thy great faithfulness, mercy and love.

Pardon for sin and a peace that endureth,
Thy own dear presence to cheer and to guide;
Strength for today and bright hope for tomorrow,
Blessings all mine, with ten thousand beside!

—Heart and Life
