NOTICE

There will be a joint meeting of the Board of Directors of the Holiness Bible Institute and the ordained ministers of the denomination, at Woodstock December 27-28 inclusive.

The first meeting will be held December 27th at 1.30 p. m.

The purpose of the meeting is to formulate plans for the future and expansion of the school.

Those on the Board are as follows: Norman Cochrane, Fred Brown, Burpee S. Dow, Rev. H. L. Robertson.

H. L. ROBERTSON, Principal

QUARTERLY MEETING

The Quarterly meeting of District No. 1 was held at the Reformed Baptist Church in Fort Fairfield, Maine, Thursday to Sunday, Nov. 29th to Dec. 2nd inclusive.

There were a goodly number of delegates and ministers present.

The officers for the Quarterly, which were elected Saturday afternoon, are as follows: Chairman—Rev. H. S. Dow.

Asst. Chairman—Lic. Mered Grant.

Secretary—Iris Emery.

Treasurer—Mrs. Otis Ames.

Highway Agent—Rev. Howard Robertson.

Devotional Committee — Irvine Mitchell, Thomas Williams, William Andrews and Lester Todd.

The singing of six members of the school at Woodstock, also Mrs. Lester Todd and Herbert McCrea was greatly enjoyed by everyone.

The preaching was of the highest order.

I believe that everyone would agree that this Quarterly meeting was one of the best ever held on this district.

IRIS EMERY, Sec.

A Preview of Our 1946 Highway

We present our contributors for the coming year, with a brief word concerning their contributions, and information regarding other regular features to be found in The King's Highway of 1946.

B. C. COCHRANE

The Editor, B. C. Cochrane, presents regular Editorials, also edits the columns "Editorial Gleanings," excerpts from the editorials of other religious papers and periodicals, and "The Church in the World," items of interest concerning religious activities the world over.

H. S. DOW

The Associate Editor, H. S. Dow, writes a message for each paper entitled "By the Associate Editor," practical talks to our readers, helps to everyday living.

W. H. MULLEN

The Young People's Editor, W. H. Mullen, edits the Young People's Page, the department of our Highway devoted especially to the spiritual interests of young people. The Y. P. Editor writes editorials in each paper, also the item "Youth in Action," and other articles of particular interest to young people.

F. A. Dunlop prepares messages for the column captioned "Tempered Truths," a regular feature of The Highway that is widely read; a helpful discussion of the great truths of the gospel.

F. A. DUNLOP

R. B. Warren, pastor of the Broadview Free Methodist Church, Toronto, provides brief, soul-nourishing articles for our readers, articles that also appear in many newspapers and religious periodicals of Canada and United States.

R. B. WARREN

A. D. Cann joins the regular contributors to bring us "Helps on the Sunday School Lesson," a new feature designed to assist our readers in their study of the Scriptures associated with the International S. S. lessons.

A. D. CANN

W. E. Smith also writes for each Highway of 1946, bringing us message out of more than a half-century of experience as a preacher and writer.

W. E. SMITH

In addition to the features already referred to, we shall have a Missionary Page, with letters from our workers in Africa, and articles associated with the subject of Foreign Missions. The Pastor's Message, sermons contributed by our pastors, the renewal of a series greatly appreciated in the past; the Temperance Column, with items emphasizing the need and nature of true temperance; "Getting Acquainted with Our Churches," a new feature presenting pictures of our church buildings, with informative notes regarding the local church groups; "Ministers and Churches," with news regarding revival meetings, baptisms, camp meetings, etc.; "Selected Articles," outstanding messages by well-known writers, chosen from other religious periodicals.

We prayerfully hope that The Highway of 1946 will surpass all former achievements in quality and scope of ministry, and earnestly solicit the wholehearted co-operation of every minister, missionary and layman in our effort to extend its advocacy of Scriptural Holiness.
