OVER THE TOP!

Our self-denial fund goal this year is $1,000. Let us go over the top!

EDITORIAL

THE GREATEST YEAR OF ALL

Beulah Camp has been in operation for over half a century, but never before has it had so much to offer as it does this year. To adequately describe the regular camp would demand our richest superlatives; consequently, any attempt to portray the feast of good things that shall be ours for nearly the whole month of July will be an understatement.

The second part of Beulah's program, however, is what catches the eye of our young people particularly—the Youth Camp and Summer Bible School! Here will be given the opportunity of learning more about the Bible and Christian service in an atmosphere of quiet and healthful relaxation. The daily schedule will be full but not burdensome. A pleasant variety of Bible study and evangelistic services, coupled with recreational periods of swimming, hiking, playing, constitute a partial answer, at least, to the questions of "what to do" and "where to go" for the summer.

One amazing feature (and to many of our young people who are not earning money, it will be vital) is the low cost. How far would a young person have to travel to find another place where he can get room, board, and all the advantages of this Youth Camp in such a beautiful environment, all for five dollars? Rarely has so much been offered for so little.

All our young people who possibly can will want to be at Beulah this year. Undoubtedly it will be the greatest year of all so far. Don't miss it!

A naturally selfish disposition may, by continual and gentle influence, be brought to rejoice in another's happiness and to work for it; while a naturally generous heart may, by coldness, be shut up from its own warm impulses.—Young People.

SOCIETY FUNDS

Remember how we went over the top last year with our Y. P. Society funds and pledges? A look at the report in the Alliance Minutes will remind you that we gave $1,000 to home and foreign missions, besides generous contributions to other worthwhile projects.

Our self-denial goal this year is $1,000, apart from the general fund. Let us break our record again. Now is the time to send in our pledges, also our society contributions to the general fund.

The self-denial treasurer is Rev. A. D. Cann, Hartland, N. B. The treasurer of the general fund is Miss Maryellen MacCallum, 251 St. George Street, Moncton, N. B.

BUILDING A MAN

By Ben L. Byer

When we build a house we have a plan;
We start with a boy when we build a man;
A good foundation is a vital thing
If you're building a man or anything.

The longer it lasts, the more care we should take

To follow the plan, and make no mistake;
We can change a house and make repair,
But a man lives forever, so build with care.

GYPSY SMITH AS A BOY

While holding meetings in the East End of London, Mr. Sankey sought a little relaxation, and accordingly took a drive to Epping, Forest, where he visited a gipsy encampment. There he met a couple of converted gipsy lads who came running up to the carriage.

Sankey, putting his hand on the head of one of these lads, observed, "May the Lord make a preacher of you, my boy!" That boy was Gipsy Smith.

Fifteen years later, when Gipsy made the first of his many visits to America, Sankey had the pleasure of taking him for a drive in Brooklyn. During the course of the drive Gipsy asked Sankey if he remembered the drive to Epping Forest, and if he could recall putting his hand on the head of a little gipsy boy, saying that he hoped some day the boy would become a preacher of the Gospel. Sankey said he remembered that incident well, and when Gipsy said, "I am that boy," Sankey was surprised beyond measure. Says Sankey, "My surprise can better be imagined than described. Little had I thought that the successful evangelist and fine Gospel singer of whom I had heard so much, and whom I had so much admired, was the little boy I had met in the gipsy camp. Truly God has granted my wish of 15 years before, and has made a mighty preacher of the gipsy boy."—Family Herald.

WHO ARE THE YOUNG PEOPLE

By the Rev. A. E. Belk

Youth is not a time of life, it is a state of mind. It is not a matter of flush cheeks, red lips, and supple knees! It is a temper of the will, a quality of the imagination, a vigor of the emotions; it is a freshness of the deeper springs of life.

Youth means a temperamental predominance of courage over timidity, of the appetite for adventure over the love of ease. This often
