

Ministers and Churches

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."—Psa. 126-6.

Rev. P. W. Briggs has accepted a call to become pastor of our church at Amherst for the coming year.

Lic. R. H. Parks reports the work at Halifax as encouraging with attendance and interest on the increase.

Rev. G. A. Rogers spoke at the Lynn, Mass., Nazarene Church Sunday, May 6th. Revs. H. S. Dow, F. T. Wright and M. Ella Slipp supplied for Brother Rogers at the Presque Isle Gospel Tabernacle the same day.

The Editor had the privilege of speaking in the prayer meeting at Marysville Tuesday, May 22nd. We found the work in a good state there, the blessing of the Lord attending the ministry of the pastor, Rev. F. A. Watson.

The weekly radio ministry of our Moncton Church, the "Christian Witness Broadcast," which has been conducted each Monday evening since Feb. 19th, has been discontinued for the summer season. On Monday evening, May 28th, the church was filled for the final broadcast, the climax of a ministry that has had widespread and enthusiastic support. The periodical Sunday broadcasts from our Moncton Church will continue, the next being Sunday, June 10th, at 11.00 a. m.

A letter from one of our laymen at Hartland states that the work on that field is going forward under the zealous labours of Rev. A. D. Cann.

Rev. and Mrs. Wilbur Mullen assisted Rev. H. C. Mullen, and the church at Meductic, in two weeks of special services, May 7-18.

NOTICE TO OUR HELPERS

Several of our friends pledged money last summer at Riverside Camp Meeting to assist us in repairing our buildings there, and we promised to let you know through The Highway when we needed the money. Now is the time. Several have paid their pledges already, for which we are thankful. We are making repairs already. We have to put a new roof on the tabernacle. We are using galvanized roofing, which is quite expensive, but we think it will pay us to use it, for it will last much longer than other materials. We also have to make repairs on the hotel before our meeting takes place this summer. So please let us have your gifts at once. Those in Canada send your money to Rev. F. A. Dunlop, Port Maitland, N. S., and those in U. S. send yours to Rev. H. S. Dow, Fort Fairfield, Maine. We want to get ready for a great Camp Meeting in August this summer. Let us all pray and do our best to make it so.

Thank you! H. S. DOW

GOOD NEWS!

All the friends of Rev. and Mrs. H. C. Mullen and family will rejoice to learn that their son, F/O Vernon Mullen, reported missing two months ago, is safe and homeward bound. We join these friends in thanking God for the preservation of this young man.

Brother and Sister Mullen write: "We wish to thank all those who prayed for us and sent letters and cards of sympathy during our time of anxiety for our boy."

BEDDING FOR BEULAH

With the prospect of a record attendance at Beulah Camp this year, there is a great need of sheets, quilts and pillow cases. Sunday school classes, women's groups and all interested are urgently requested to co-operate in the good work of donating to meet this need.

SUNDAY SCHOOL ORDERS

Will those ordering Sunday School supplies, please observe the following: Orders should be sent to Rev. A. D. Cann, Hartland, N. B., at least a month before beginning of Quarter; 25% should be deducted from the total of the order; money orders, cheques, postal notes, etc., should be made payable to Rev. A. D. Cann.

Will all concerned kindly follow these rules so that supplies may reach our Sunday Schools on time, and needless work be avoided.

Thanks!

THE BEST

God wants the best!
He, in the far-off ages,
Once claimed the firstling of the flock, the finest of the sheep.
And still He asks His own with gentlest pleading
To lay their highest hopes and brightest prospects at His feet.

And is our best too much?
O friends, let us remember
How once our Lord poured out His soul for us;
And in the prime of His mysterious manhood
Gave up His precious blood upon the cross.
The Lord of lords, by whom the worlds were made,
Through bitter grief and tears, gave us
The best He had.

HOW TO HAVE A GOOD CAMP MEETING

By Rev. E. E. Shelhamer

Camp-meeting season is near, and a few suggestions might help:

1. Get ready! Begin now to prepare and lay aside certain things, as soap, towels, mirror, rubbers, umbrella, mosquito netting, sheeting for curtains, etc.

2. Be on time! Go early, sit in front, and pray through, either for yourself or for others. Help bring the tide up, for if you wait till it is high, you may be swept off your feet.

3. Look for a chance to bless others. Smile at the stranger, especially if he looks lonely or discouraged. Take him aside and pray with him, hand him a song book, pay for his meal, and you will soon feel at home yourself and forget that you are unnoticed.

4. Don't get "tried!" If your tent or bed is not just so, and if you are not invited to sit or dine with big folk, remember you are not there to show off. Keep saying to yourself, "Everything is better than I deserve! How glad I should be to sit on a low bench and drink in the deep truths of God. Thousands would rejoice if they had my opportunities."

5. Walk in the light! If you get new and strong light, do not back down or criticize; nor go to the other extreme and "cast away your confidence." But hold steady until you can catch your equilibrium. Remember, new light brings conviction, but not necessarily condemnation, unless you resist it. You should welcome conviction, for this means enlargement, but you should refuse to get under condemnation.

6. Lay aside for expenses. Plan as far as possible to pay your own way, plus help lift the burdens of others. If you cannot do so in hard cash, don't sit around and talk, but pitch in and do something. You can sweep, dust benches, place chairs, wipe dishes, pray with seekers, or stand at the entrance and shake hands or give out tracts. The above could also apply to revivals and conventions.

Dear reader, I declare before God, if you will carry these things out, you will likely return home refreshed and enlarged in soul, mind and body. Try it!

If your Christianity is worth having, it is worth proclaiming to others. The Christ who offers Eternal Life to you has offered it to all men on the same condition. This is the Good News that Christ has commissioned us to spread throughout the world.—Phillips Brooks.
