THE TRUE PASTOR

In his comment on the tenth chapter of the Gospel according to Saint John, Adam Clark points out six marks or qualities of a good pastor:

1. He has a lawful entrance into the ministry by the internal call of Christ. "He entereth in by the door."
2. His labour is crowned with success. "To him the porter openeth."
3. He speaks so as to instruct his people. "The sheep hear his voice."
4. He is well acquainted with his flock. "He calleth his own sheep by name."
5. He leads the flock. "And leadeth them out."
6. He gives his people a good example. "He goeth before them."

GUARD THE FIRE

"Take heed to the fire in your own heart," said one.

"Then," said Samuel L. Brengle, "I thought about that, and I said to myself, 'Yes, the fire will go out unless I do three things: (1) keep the drafts open; (2) keep the ashes and clinkers cleaned out; (3) put on more fuel.' Then I applied it to my own soul. I am not to run around and kindle my fire at the altar of someone else. I have a fire of my own. I am to keep the drafts open, keep testifying, keep the windows open toward Heaven. I am to keep the ashes cleaned out—I cannot depend upon past experiences. I must seek God afresh. Then I must add fuel—pile on new truth, search the Scriptures, and feed my soul. The blasts of hell will blow the flame out, if I do not guard the fire in my own heart."—Gospel Herald.

OUR OPPORTUNITY

"For whoso hath this world's goods, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth his bowls of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?" John 3:17.

"He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the Lord, and He will repay him again. Prov. 19:17. Surely never had we such an opportunity as now, to get busy in this kind of work.

Millions in Europe are hungry and needy for about everything pertaining to human comfort, especially clothing. Winter is coming. Fuel is none too plentiful and they are undernourished now.

They are calling for help. What can each of us do?

Go through closets, trunks, etc., sort out all that is not needed for our own needs this winter, and see how much we can spare of shoes, stockings, socks, underwear, dresses, shirts, trousers and coats. Grown ups and children will rejoice to wear yours and mine. Many articles have still long wear, if mended or made over. Can we not, out of our busy days, give some time to these things? Begin now and have ready by Oct. 1st to 20th, when these will be shipped.

DONATION

Havelock, N. S.

Shortly after our arrival here members of the church and friends in the community gathered at the parsonage one evening for a combination donation and shower. Many useful things were given to us. Among other things was a lovely 97 piece dinner set.

This gathering showed to us that we had been taken into the hearts of these people and that we would be well taken care of. Many tokens of appreciation have been bestowed upon us since.

May God richly bless our labours together on this field. R. T. AND MRS. SABINE

QUARTERLY MEETING

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 4 convened with the Church at Sandford Aug. 30th to Sept. 2nd, 1945.

Opening message of the Quarterly was brought by the president, Rev. B. D. Price. Text: I Cor. 16:13: "Watch ye, stand fast," etc.

A prayer service was held Friday morning. Rev. R. T. Sabine preached Friday evening. Text: John 12:21. "Sir, we would see Jesus." This was a stirring message to Christians, that we who profess Christ, the world should see Jesus in us.

Saturday afternoon the usual business session was held.

Saturday evening's message delivered by Rev. B. D. Price. Text: Deut. 11:16: "Take heed to yourselves that your heart be not deceived."

Love Feast Sunday morning, led by Mrs. B. D. Price, followed by a preaching service. Message by Rev. H. S. Mullen. Theme: "Holiness."

This service was followed by the Communion.

Sunday afternoon's message delivered by Rev. B. D. Price. Text: Rom. 7:14: "For we know that the law is spiritual but I am carnal, sold under sin." A message on how man became the property of Satan and remains so until he is born again and under the blood.

Closing message by Rev. R. T. Sabine. Text: Is. 59:1-3. Subject: "Shutting out God."

During the Quarterly all services were enjoyed. God's presence seemed near. Preachers all at their best, preaching under the anointing of God and bringing messages that were heart searching.

We also enjoyed special music in all services and during the services had five seekers.

Every life worthwhile has unsolved problems.

Some minds are like concrete, thoroughly mixed and permanently set.
