If your Christianity is worth having, it is worth proclaiming to others. The Christ who offers Eternal Life to you has offered it to all men on the same condition. This is the Good News that Christ has commissioned us to spread throughout the world.—Phillips Brooks.

CORRESPONDENCE

Rev. F. A. and Mrs. Anderson write:

We would like a little space in which to express to the church and friends at Woodstock our deep appreciation of the faithful support and the great measure of kindness shown us during the four years we were there. Some time before we left, the folk came to the parsonage for a farewell evening. Refreshments were served by the ladies, and G. B. True, on behalf of the church, presented us with a gift of money. Later the Bible Class, the Sewing Circle, and a number of individuals, gave us money and other gifts, all of which were very much appreciated.

Again we say, "Thank you" and may God's richest blessings rest upon the church and people, and His Spirit lead on to greater victories.

Fredericton, N. B.

I feel I must write a few lines to The Highway at this time. So glad I was able to attend Beulah Camp again this year and enjoy the sweet fellowship of God's people, where year after year I have had the privilege of meeting them and praise Him who have made us to sit in heavenly places and enjoy His sweet presence. I look back to other years and recall so many who have passed to the great beyond since first I went to Beulah Camp in 1906. All these years my Heavenly Father has been so precious to me and I have felt His presence near me through sorrow and sadness. This past year has been a year of illness and I was undecided in taking the trip on account of my health, but while visiting my doctor he found me so much better and to keep that way, he advised me to keep quiet and not to take the trip. But while reading my Bible the next morning I felt then my "Heavenly Father" would have me go. I got my ticket from Isaiah 41-10. Fear thou not; for I am with thee: be not dismayed, for I am thy God; I will strengthen thee; yea, I will help thee: yea, I will uphold thee with the right hand of my righteousness. "Praise Him," I signed my name to that promise and was willing to take Him at His precious promise. Praise Him, I enjoyed my trip on the boat in a wonderful way, such a beautiful day and a holy quietness in my soul and all through the Camp He was so near me. I praise Him with this poor heart of mine that He understands and cares for me. "Only glory by and by, when we've crossed the river to our home on high. Only glory by and by. Only glory by and by. Every heart-ache gone forever. Only glory by and by."

AND THEY WERE ALL KILLED

apostles, prophets, evangelists, teachers, miracle-workers, those with gift of healing, helps, executives, and those who had gifts of various languages. Thus the Holy Spirit equipped the various members of the Church Apostolic, so that while they had "gifts differing according to the grace given them," and though they were "many members in one body," without all members having the same office, yet they "being many, were one body in Christ, and members one of another." "For by one Spirit were they all baptized into one body, whether they were bond or free; and they were all made to drink into one Spirit."—American Holiness Journal.
