

Ministers and Churches

He that goeth forth and weepeth bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him."—Psa. 126-6.

Members of our Amherst Church report that the work there is encouraging under the ministry of Rev. and Mrs. P. W. Briggs. There is an increase of attendance at all services and a number have been saved and sanctified recently.

A successful "Youth Week" campaign was conducted at Moncton Jan. 27-Feb. 3. Rev. Ralph Hobson, pastor of the Alliance Tabernacle, Saint John, was special speaker, bringing messages that were blessed of the Spirit and enjoyed by the people.

Rev. E. R. Watson, who has been pastor of the churches of the Millville circuit during the past five years, has resigned and is open for a call for the coming church year. Brother Watson's address is Millville, N. B.

Lic. Bertram Hicks writes that he is open for a call to pastoral work for the church year beginning July 1st. His address is: Canadian Nazarene College, Red Deer, Alberta.

The Editor had the privilege of co-labouring with Rev. G. A. DeLong and our church at Saint John, Friday-Sunday, Feb. 22-24, and also spoke at a Youth Rally in the Gospel Tabernacle Saturday evening.

We have heard good reports of the revival campaign at Woodstock with Rev. F. A. Dunlop as evangelist. A real visitation of the Spirit was enjoyed and gracious victory was given. A report of the meeting will appear in the next Highway.

CORRECTION AND REPETITION

A mistake was made in the last Highway by which the messages of the Associate Editor, H. S. Dow, and F. A. Dunlop, who contributes articles under the caption, "Tempered Truths," were confused. We regret the error, and are printing the articles again in this issue of The Highway. Both articles are too good to be spoiled, and we felt we owed it to both contributor and reader to print the messages in proper form.—Editor.

A SUGGESTION

On March 16th, Mrs. Diadama McLeod will be 102 years of age. Mrs. McLeod was the first president of our denominational Missionary Society and one of the consecrated members who came out to stand for holiness in this area. We suggest that Highway readers far and near send birthday greetings to Sister McLeod. Her address is Mrs. Diadama McLeod, 305 E. 5th St., Long Beach, California.

CONCERNING THE EASTER OFFERING

Dear Highway Readers:

I have found it a joy to serve in any capacity in connection with our work but the support I have received while serving on the Foreign Mission Board has been a real encouragement and inspiration.

Only today a letter came from one of our energetic pastors inquiring of our Easter Offering. "Would we be uniting our forces for an Easter Offering this year?" etc. Yes, we have been planning on our annual Easter Missionary Offering. The above mentioned letter acted as a reminder that we haven't too much time to prepare so I am contacting you through The Highway.

A recent letter from Rev. Keirstead and a letter today from Rev. C. D. Sanders agree that the present outlook for our African work is bright and challenging. Adjustments have been made and things are settling down to a prospective future.

The necessity of bringing the MacDonalds home has been a heavy drain on our treasury. The usual upkeep of the buildings, the salaries of our faithful workers, and the needs of missionary work can only be met as our people continue the generous response of other years.

I am sure the Lord is calling us to strengthen our staff of workers. Miss Mary Campbell, at present on the teaching staff of the Holiness Bible Institute, has offered her services to the Board. Miss Campbell is talented and deeply spiritual. She is needed in Africa, and I know that with God's help we are able to assume the responsibility. We can always do a little more, and a little more from each one will keep our work growing.

I want every pastor to get behind this Easter Offering and make it the greatest it has ever been. The people will respond liberally when they know that their money will be used to bring Christ's message into the dark places of earth. So, let us make Easter Sunday a day of gladness by offering to our risen Lord a generous Missionary Offering.

FRASER DUNLOP,
President, Foreign Mission Board

THE CHURCH IN THE WORLD

NOTED PREACHER PASSES

Rev. Charles Monroe Sheldon, D. D., famous throughout the Christian world as author of "In His Steps," died last week at his home in Texas. Had he lived until Feb. 26th, Dr. Sheldon would have been 89 years of age. Born at Wellsville, N. Y., the famous preacher-author was ordained to the ministry of the Congregational Church in 1886. He was pastor of Central Congregational Church in Topeka, Kan., for 23 years. Besides writing the book which gained a circulation second only to the Bible, and made his name famous around the world, Dr. Sheldon made other notable contributions to the generations he served. For one week in 1900, Dr. Sheldon edited the newspaper, "Topeka Capital," conducting the business "as Christ would edit a newspaper." As a result of that remarkable experiment, the circulation of the paper multiplied amazingly and was read throughout the nation. An outstanding servant of God has passed on.

A TESTIMONY

Dear Highway Friends:

"The Lord has done great things for me, whereof I am glad."

Some time ago I had trouble with my right ear, and no matter what I put on it, it would not heal. After 5 or 6 weeks I became alarmed about it and one night at prayer meeting I asked prayer for healing. I expected all would be well in a few days, but it seemed to me that the ear was getting worse. One day at my work I was talking to the Lord about it. To go to the doctor's office would cost $3.00, so I asked the Lord if He would take the sore away and heal my ear, that instead of giving the $3.00 to the doctor I would send it to Gladys Keirstead, our missionary in Africa, and that I would testify through The Highway concerning my healing. Almost over night the scabs were gone and the liquid cleared up and my ear was completely healed. Thanks to the Great Three in One.

Yours to obey my Master,
MISS VERA MICHEALS,
Medford, Mass.

OUR PRIVILEGE

In the last issue of The Highway a note appeared in the Personals in reference to Brother Ziba Orser, of Hartland, N. B. I can voice a hearty Amen! to all that was written, and now I would suggest that we send our dear brother a love offering. This is a privilege we all can enjoy, so let us act at once.

Yours in the name of Jesus,
P. J. TRAFTON

Dear Editor:

I was sorry to learn, through Brother Traf-ton, our brother, Ziba Orser's illness, and to see the same confirmed in your personal notes of the 15th.

I don't believe in saving all the flowers for a saint's coffin. Let us give them to the living. I count Brother Ziba one of God's choicest saints. He has been tried in the fire because God saw that he could stand the test. Think of his physical affliction, the deprivation of sight; think of the fire that swept thousands of dollars' worth of property away! Think of the many operations his loved ones have been called to endure. These and many other trials have come to our brother, but God has kept him sweet and true in the midst of them all.

I want to bear personal testimony to the inspiration this dear brother has been to me in the many years of my ministry. I never met him but I left feeling better for the contact. I am sure that every pastor that has served the Hartland Church has found this brother to be a holy inspiration and encouragement. I know there are many who have far more tender and sympathetic hearts than I have, but the thought of this brother's afflictions and his trueness to God has compelled me to express my appreciation in a small tangible way at different times.

I hope that those who read this may be similarly affected. He can't be with us much longer. Let us send him a love offering and experience the joy which Jesus speaks of: it being "more blessed to give than to receive."

Yours for practical holiness,
W. EDMUND SMITH
