

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Lic. Clayton Alley supplied the pulpit at Beal's, Maine, Aug. 22nd, and Sept. 1st, in the absence of the pastor, Rev. F. A. Anderson.

Rev. Norman Trafton will assist Rev. A. D. Cann and our church at Victoria Corner, N. B., in revival meetings Sept. 29th-Oct. 13th. Brother Trafton has an open date Oct. 20th-Nov. 3rd. Write him at 284 O'Dell Ave., Fredericton, N. B.

Rev. H. C. Archer has been confined to his home through illness for a time, but we are glad to report that he is improving. Brother Archer's address is 45 Williams St., Moncton, N. B.

Special "Youth Week" services will be conducted at Moncton Sept. 29-Oct. 6. Rev. F. A. Dunlop and Paul Mullen will be special workers.

During the next six months the majority of our churches will engage in revival campaigns. It is doubtless the most important time of the church year. Will pastors please inform us in advance of dates of their meetings, special workers, etc., so that we may notify our Highway readers. Will the members of The Highway family in turn join in fervent prayer to God for every campaign advertised. May the Lord give great victory.

The campaign for new subscribers is now in progress. Will every pastor and church member, and every Highway reader please co-operate to extend the ministry of our advocate of scriptural holiness.

NOTICE TO SUBSCRIBERS

We know from letters received that there are some Highway readers who have been receiving the paper from the time it was first published. The Editor would like to hear from all those who have had the King's Highway coming to their homes during all the years of publication. Kindly write Rev. B. C. Cochrane, Box 227, Moncton, N. B.

Our subscribers write:

Saint John, N. B.

"I have taken The Highway from the time it was first published and enjoy it now more than ever. It gets better every issue."

Ottawa, Ontario

"I appreciate the high standard of The King's Highway and wish it continued success."

Vancouver, B. C.

"We have been absent from the Maritimes for thirty-five years, but we still enjoy The Highway."

Charleston, Maine

"We enjoy The King's Highway very much and look forward to each new edition. We feel that your paper is one of the finest influences in the home and elsewhere."

IT IS NOT TOO EARLY—

To send Christmas cards and gifts to our missionaries. We need to allow from six weeks to two months for passage of mail to those in Africa. For the benefit of those who wish to remember our workers in the foreign fields we print their addresses:

Rev. and Mrs. E. A. M. Kierstead and family, Altona M. S., Delfkom, P. Q., via Piet Retief, Transvaal, South Africa.

Rev. and Mrs. Charles Sanders, Rev. Grace Sanders, Rev. George Sanders, Hartland, Paulpietersburg, Natal, South Africa.

SCHOOL APPEAL

This year finds an increased enrolment at our Bible School, hence causing a need of more bedding. If any persons interested in the advancement of the school have any sheets, blankets, pillows or pillow cases they could donate to such a worthy cause it would be a much appreciated act. Any donations should be sent directly to Holiness Bible Institute, Woodstock, N. B.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE

GREAT VIRTUES

Do not be troubled because you have no great virtues. God made a million spears of grass where He made one tree. The earth is fringed and carpeted not with forests but with grasses. Only have enough of little virtues and common fidelities, and you need not mourn because you are neither a hero nor a saint.—H. W. Beecher.
