SUNSET BY THE RIVER

A tribute to the St. John River by Alice F. Sterritt

What wondrous beauty we behold,
When earth and sky unite,
In bringing forth the touch of God,
In sunset glory bright.

The hills grow purple as the sun
In quietness descends,
While crimson clouds adorn the sky,
And changing color blends

To form a scene surpassing speech,
Our souls are calmed and thrilled,
We feel that God is very near,
Our hearts with praise are filled.

The crimson clouds surmounted are
With billowy banks of gold,
Like mountain peaks they rise, and form
New beauty to behold.

But farther South and to the North
Cool, pale green light is gleaming,
So pure and clear in contrast with
The rich hues brightly streaming.

Beneath God's wondrous color scheme
The peaceful river lies,
The hills are mirrored in its depths,
And cloud banks from the skies.

How beautiful it all appears!

The river darkly calm
And landscape fair, seem to breath forth
A quiet evening psalm.

Always, from ever grateful hearts
We'll thank our God—the Giver,
For all the wondrous sunset hours
We've spent beside the river.

We cherish still the memory,
Where'er our feet may roam,
And never can forget the charms
Of our Canadian home.

LETTERS FROM OUR PASTORS

Millville, N. B.

Greetings to Highway Friends:

God is blessing the work here and continuing to lead by His Spirit.

Mother's Day, Sunday, May 11th, was an outstanding Lord's Day. We had as guest speaker Rev. H. E. Enty, B. A., B. D.; Licentiates H. R. Ingersoll and Scott Ingersoll, also Brothers Bruce Bridges and Enos Cann as additional members of the H. B. I. Quartette. A baptismal service was held at 2.00 p. m. in the stream at Millville Bridge, when 22 followed Jesus in the ordinance of baptism by immersion. In the evening 18 joined the Reformed Baptist Church at Millville. At the close of the evening service ten more knelt at the altar of prayer. Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

On a recent Friday evening about 60 friends, members of the Church and community, gathered into the parsonage and spent an enjoyable evening in hymn singing and social chat. Refreshments were served and then followed the presentation to pastor and wife of a large sum of money as a token of appreciation for our God directed labors with this people this year. We gratefully appreciate this generous gift and also the faithful co-operation of such a fine group of people as we have the privilege of ministering to.

Yours for victory and the salvation of precious souls,

REV. R. H. & MRS. PARKS
