

"Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth."
—ECCLES. 12:1

YOUNG PEOPLE'S PAGE

Voice of the Reformed Baptist Y. P. A.

Editor: Lic. Ralph Ingersoll
Woodstock, N. B.

EDITORIAL

The grass is green, the flowers are blooming, the birds are singing and our thoughts are again turned to one of nature's most beautiful spots—Beulah Camp Ground.

How anxious the "old-faithful" attendants of the Camp are getting to stroll along the picturesque, tree-lined gravel paths and breathe in the pure air from off the beautiful Saint John River. More anxious are they, however, to wend their way towards the majestic tabernacle in the early hours of a quiet, bright morning when the river is motionless, to attend a six o'clock prayer meeting that the day may be started with a spiritual shower of blessing.

As they leave this sacred meeting place to enjoy the fellowship of Christian friends and to greet old acquaintances in the dining hall, the very rocks cry out with, "Glory", "Hallelujah", "Praise the Lord."

We especially look forward to the evangelistic services when the floods of joy roll o'er our souls as the masses unite in singing the songs of Zion. Then as God's servant breaks the Bread of Life and light shines with increased power into our hearts, we rejoice in the fathomless riches of love that are ours in Christ Jesus.

The climax of blessing comes with the times of victory around the rustic mourner's bench when shouts of joy declare some sinner saved or some believer cleansed from all sin by the mighty power of God.

Beulah affords not only the best of climatic atmosphere and natural surroundings but also the best in spiritual atmosphere and surroundings. It is a ten day feast on the heavenly manna. May we as young people take advantage of our opportunities and attend this great Camp Meeting with our hearts attuned to God that we may be blessed and be a blessing to others.

Sincerity is the salt of character.

Always at it brings success.

YOUTH CAMP NEWS

Time: July 15—27; twelve days of happy Christian fellowship.

Place: Beulah-on-the-St. John, scenic Camp Ground of the Reformed Baptist Alliance.

Speaker: Rev. Richard Traver, preacher, teacher, soloist.

Expenses: $6.00 for entire Camp; $1.00 application fee; $5.00 registration fee. Those planning to attend this year's Youth Camp please write Randolph Nicholson, Meductic, N. B., enclosing $1.00 application fee.

GREATEST RALLY YET!

The Rally for which we planned and prayed for so long, is now history. It has gone down in the annals of our young people's work as the greatest Y. P. Rally of our denomination to date. This is not the opinion of the editor only, but it was voiced by many of the delegates with whom we discussed the Convention.

From the opening stanza of our Rally theme song, "Saved", to the final benediction of the Convention, God's presence was felt in a marked manner.

Delegates were in attendance from about twenty-three of our churches and the yellow Rally ribbon worn on the coats was in great evidence on the streets of Moncton. Approximately one hundred and twenty-five people attended the rally from points outside of Moncton.

On Saturday afternoon a bus, a station wagon and eight private cars, conveyed the young people to one of the natural beauty spots outside of the city. Here everyone renewed acquaintances and enjoyed the good ice-cream supplied by the Moncton Society. We take this opportunity to thank the people of Moncton for their kind hospitality.

Each of the Rally services grew better with the climax coming on Sunday evening. The Church was packed to capacity and Bro. DeV. Mullen led the singing, assisted by a choir of thirty-five or forty young people. How God did come on the scene! After Rev. H. E. Enty, who brought such helpful messages all through the Convention, had closed his final address, a dozen souls bowed at an altar of prayer and prayed through to definite victory.

Perhaps the time of richest blessing was in the after service. The presence and blessing of the Lord was filling the place as we sang together, enjoyed the special singing of the H. B. I. Quartette and Bro. DeV. Mullen, and listened to the testimonies of the many who were enjoying the good things of God.

As we looked into the faces of the many people who had the joy bells ringing in their souls, we said within ourselves, "Praise God from whom all blessings flow." Truly the Rally was a worthwhile enterprise.

May we begin now to look forward to next year's Rally and plan to make it even better because of the presence of the many souls that shall have been won during the coming year.

WHICH CLASS?

No godly Christian character will seek to bring railing accusation against their fellow member of the family of God! Those guilty of this sin may be found in either of two classes.

First, professing Christians who have lost the blessing and glory of God out of their lives by allowing sin once again to enter the soul.

Second, those who may never have known the power of Divine grace, but sense deep guilt and condemnation of their own sinful lives before God.

Either of these classes had much better have their sins hidden at the Cross of Calvary, than try to hide them behind the faults of their fellowmen.

—LELAND WILCOX.

WANT A PICTURE?

7½ x 8¾ pictures of the Young People's Group at the bottom of this page can be obtained by sending 30c to Charles McCall, McSweeney Ave., Moncton, N. B.

Trust not the fickle winds of popular favor.

Some of those who attended the Y. P. Rally at Moncton, May 23-26