NO TIME FOR COMPROMISE

Walter E. Isenhour

The subtle sources of evil, sin and wickedness would have every church and every Christian on the face of the earth to compromise God's truth, righteousness and holiness with them, and thereby become weak and powerless. This is indeed no time to compromise. If ever we stood for truth and righteousness, firm and undaunted, it ought to be now. Too many churches and Christians have toned down, cooled off and compromised with the world and the devil until our nation is in a dreadful predicament. The liquor forces are flooding the nation with liquor, and the various forces of wickedness are going forth against right and righteousness, until we are now seeing the worst crime wave sweeping the nation in years, or almost in history.

This is no time for dead formality in religion, or for carelessness, lukewarmness and indifference. Such gets us nowhere. It only permits souls to be lost and the devil to sway the masses of mankind. I heard of a preacher saying that it is no harm for a so-called Christian to take a drink of liquor, or that he could take a drink and still be a Christian. This certainly is not God's Word on it. His Holy Word says, "Abstain from all appearance of evil." (I Thess. 5:22) To take a drink of liquor is to absolutely violate this command. Who would want such a preacher, or professed Christian, to pray for him in the hour of death? Would you send for such a preacher, or professor of religion, or would you send for one who lives godly, prayerfully and uprightly, and stands against liquor with all his might, and against all sin and wickedness? I'd send for one who touches not, tastes not liquor, nor mixes and mingles with sin in any way. That is how God wants us to live. We have no God-given right at all to compromise with the devil on any point, thereby lowering God's standard of truth and righteousness and plan of salvation.

God wants clean men and women, godly, prayerful, holy men and women to represent the church and the Christian religion, not cowards and compromisers. Too many have so lowered the standard of religion in their lives and their churches until it is hard to distinguish between multitudes of professors of religion today and non-professors. As a consequence drunkenness, crime, adultery, hatred, war and destruction is sweeping the earth, and will sweep the earth. Reader, don't compromise with the devil or he will get you.
