QUARTERLY MEETING REPORTS

District No. 3

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 3 convened with the church at Beals, Maine, March 20-23.

The following ministers were present: Revs. G. R. Symonds, S. G. Hilyard, F. A. Anderson and Lic. Clayton Alley.

Delegates were present from Seal Cove, Jonesport and Beals.

Although the attendance was not large because of sickness in the community, we feel it was a good Quarterly as the messages brought by the brethren were of high order, inspiring and helpful.

The Sunday School Lesson taught by Lic. Clayton Alley was enjoyed by all, and the Love Feast which followed with Bro. Harvey Cook of Seal Cove as leader, was a time of blessing and refreshing in the Lord.

LESTER W. ALLEY,
Secretary.

District No. 4

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 4, convened with the church at Woods Harbour, N. S., March 27-30 inclusive.

Attending the Quarterly were Revs. L. T. Sabine, R. T. Sabine, H. S. Mullen, Lic. Miriam Sanders, and delegates from Havelock, Port Maitland, Sandford, and Woods Harbour. Encouraging reports were read from the churches of the District.

Good messages were brought by the various speakers and the blessing of the Lord was upon all the services. Ministers and delegates agreed that it was a good Quarterly.

MRS. HARRY BAIN,
Secretary.

THE OLD-FASHIONED PREACHER

Old Parson Stubbs, he used to preach,
At Tobin's school house on the beach;
A preacher of the olden brand,
With Scripture verses right at hand,
With half the Bible learned by note,
Right in his head where he could quote.

I am sure the bells of Heaven rang,
When he prayed and when he sang!
He raised a loud reproving din
Against old-fashioned breeds of sin.
He spake aloud—some say he raved
About the need of "getting saved."

He held "revivals" now and then
Where women and grown up men
With tear streams coursing down the face,
Sought "pardon, purity and grace."
He thundered forth "the truth," "the Word,"
In tones that were distinctly heard.
He had one message meant for all,
'Twas "seek redemption from the fall."

The parson died in ninety-three!
His last song was, "Abide with me,"
His last words were, "It is His way,
Good-bye. I'm going Home today."

"A man now preaches in his place,
Who scoffs the very word of grace,"
He has A. M.'s and Ph. D.'s,
And other marks of high degrees.
He lectures on the planet Mars,
The glory of the moon and stars,
The glory of the mountain range,
And other topics, vague and strange,
His lectures might be very good,
If only they were understood.
But they don't put a man on pins,
And make him sorry for his sins;
They never stir a wicked gent
Up to the point where he'll repent.
I wonder what this man will sing
When slipping off to meet "the King,"
And, if like Parson Stubbs will say,
"Good-bye, I'm going Home today."

LETTERS FROM OUR PASTORS

North Head, N. B.

Dear Highway Friends:

We would like a little space in which to report our recent meetings in which Brother Dunlop was our able helper. We never heard our brother preach better; every message was owned and blessed of God, and hearts were stirred from the very start. If only all who were deeply moved had yielded to the Lord, this place would have experienced a mighty revival, but even God can go so far and no farther. Sad it is indeed when men turn away from their best friend, and close their hearts against Him. We are glad for what was accomplished. Ten seekers knelt at the altar, and their bright testimonies are good to hear. We are looking forward to a baptism in the near future.

This is the first time I have had the privilege of working with Brother Dunlop in revival work, but trust it will not be the last time. He proved to be a true yoke-fellow. May God bless his evangelistic efforts wherever he goes.

Yours, in the cause of Holiness,

J. A. OWENS
