

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Rev. H. E. Enty has been assisting Rev. R. L. Sabine in special services at Crystal, Me. Students of H. B. I. have provided special music for the campaign.

Lic. Ralph Ingersoll reports that the appeal for support of our Bible Institute has met with a splendid response.

Rev. R. H. Parks reports that the revival spirit is still present at Millville, with souls finding victory in the regular services.

There will be two radio broadcasts from Moncton during the Young People's Convention. The morning service of Sunday, May 25th, will be broadcast, 11.00 a. m.-12.00, and the Convention will climax with the last Christian Witness Broadcast of the season Monday evening, May 26th, 9.30-10.00. Both broadcasts are over CKCW, Moncton, 1220 kc., and the time is Atlantic Daylight.

Rev. L. T. Sabine has accepted a unanimous call to remain at Wood's Harbour, N. S., for the next church year.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

At the Third Session of our Alliance of last year, a resolution was passed to the effect that each Sunday School of the denomination send one of their members to the 1947 Youth Camp at Beulah, and that the expense of the Youth Camp ($6.00) "be taken care of from the denominational Sunday School Fund." This means that each S. S. can elect one of its scholars to attend the Youth Camp of this year and their Camp expenses will be paid by the Alliance. Some Sunday Schools are assuming the responsibility of paying the travelling expenses to and from the Camp. Will pastors and S. S. Superintendents please notify Randolph Nicholson, Meductic, N. B., concerning the name of the person chosen from their particular school.

LETTERS FROM OUR PASTORS

Moncton, N. B.

Dear Highway Friends:

We wish to report an outstanding Missionary Convention held May 8-13. Special workers were Dr. Charles Culver and Miss Ruth Bergert, of Winona Lake, Indiana, and Mrs. Blanche Frithe, of Toronto, representatives of the Oriental Missionary Society.

The messages of Dr. Culver were powerful and illuminating. Having travelled around the world in missionary service, he brings a soul-stirring picture of the urgent need of consecrated workers at home and abroad, that the unevangelized may hear of the Saviour. Every message brought by Dr. Culver was signally owned of the Spirit.

The music of the Convention was in charge of Miss Ruth Bergert, missionary-elect to South America. Miss Bergert is blessed with splendid musical talent, playing the piano, flute, vibraharp and other instruments with great skill, and singing beautifully.

Mrs. Frith, Canadian Secretary of the O. M. S., spoke fluently of the work of the Society and won the hearts of the people with her gracious manner and beautiful spirit.

Attendance at the Convention was excellent. In the beginning numbers were not large, but there was a steady increase, with a full church Sunday and Monday evening. On Tuesday evening, the closing service of the Convention, the church building was crowded.

The blessing of God rested mightily upon all the meetings. The people of God were greatly aroused to the need of world-wide evangelization. Sinners were saved, backsliders reclaimed, and believers sanctified. The Convention reached a glorious climax about 10 p. m. Tuesday evening with twenty souls at the altar of prayer. Some were seeking pardon, some purity of heart, and others blessing and power for effective service for the Lord, at home and abroad. A number of young people dedicated their lives to God for service as He leads.

We greatly rejoice in the Lord for this great Convention and feel it was a great privilege to have such splendid workers with us. We already look forward to next year's Convention.

Yours for souls,

B. C. & MRS. COCHRANE

DEAF PEOPLE REACHED WITH GOSPEL BY MAIL

A gospel ministry by mail to deaf people (those who neither speak nor hear) in the United States and Canada is carried on by a Christian brother in Minneapolis, Mr. Julius K. Hoffman. His mailing list now includes 10,000 names. There are about 125,000 deaf people in the United States and Canada. Mr. Hoffman, deaf himself, has a real burden for the deaf, and writes letters or sends free tracts and gospel literature to those not reached through the churches. Any reader knowing deaf people who would be open to such a ministry is invited to send their names and addresses to Mr. Hoffman at Post Office Box 1097, Minneapolis 1, Minnesota. He also requests the prayers of Christian people.
