

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Our church at Middle Southampton has been repaired and renovated and the pastor, Rev. H. C. Mullen, wrote that there will be special rededication services all day Sunday, Nov. 23rd, with special speakers and special singing. All who can attend are invited to be present.

The morning service of Sunday, Nov. 30th, will be broadcast from our Moncton Church, 11.00-12.00 over CKCW, 1220 kc.

Flight-Lieutenant Frank Pinch, of Trenton, Ontario, spoke at our church in Amherst, Sunday evening, Nov. 2nd, and at a Service of Remembrance at Moncton the following Sunday morning.

Mrs. H. C. Sanders recently visited our churches at Hartland, Victoria, Lower Brighton and Woodstock, bringing special missionary messages. Sister Sanders also spoke in the Monthly Missionary Meeting at Moncton, Thursday, Nov. 13th.

Rev. F. A. Dunlop, Superintendent of Evangelism, has been visiting our churches in the interest of extension work. Brother Dunlop has already visited our churches of the Port Maitland-Sanford, N. S., Circuit, and Havelock, N. S.; also Fredericton, Marysville, Head of Millstream and Moncton, N. B. On Wednesday, Nov. 19th, Brother Dunlop was at Black's Harbour. Other appointments already arranged are: Seal Cove, Wood Island and North Head, Grand Manan, Sunday, Nov. 23rd; Beals and Jonesport, Maine, Sunday, Nov. 30th. Brother Dunlop reports splendid response everywhere.

Renewal of the weekly broadcasts from our Moncton Church has been delayed. We hope to be able to announce the programme's return to the air in the near future.

All ministers of our church are requested to make plans to attend the Ministers' Conference at Marysville Jan. 13th-15th.

THE SLAVERY THAT IS LOVE—THE SACRED JOY OF SERVING AND SACRIFICING

What He says to you, do. His will is recorded in His Word. Search the Scriptures. Meditate therein day and night. Hide His Word in your heart. Be not forgetful. Take time to seek His face. Think of a slave being too busy to wait on his master, to find out his wishes! Take time, find time, make time to seek the Lord, and He will be found of you. He will reveal Himself to your longing, loving soul, and you shall know the sweet compulsions of the slavery that is love.

Higher than the highest heavens

Deeper than the deepest sea,

Lord, Thy love at last has conquered;

Grant me now my spirit's longing—

None of self, and all of Thee!

—Herald of His Coming

WEDDINGS

MARRIED

Noddin-Bagley

On Aug. 22nd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Bagley, of Seal Cove, N. B., their second daughter, Janet Claire, became the bride of Marvin Noddin. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Owens in the absence of the pastor, Rev. R. T. Sabine.

Titus-Bass

At the Reformed Baptist parsonage in North Head, N. B., on Sept. 11th, Rev. J. A. Owens united in marriage Jackie Titus, of Seal Cove, and Hazel Bass, of North Head.

Munn-Parker

At the Reformed Baptist Church, North Head, N. B., Hazel Parker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker, was united in marriage to Clarence Munn, of Saint John. Rev. J. A. Owens performed the ceremony.

LETTERS FROM OUR PASTORS

Dear Highway:

If there is room I would like to report, briefly, our recent special services at Central Wood Harbor, Shelburne Co., N. S.

For three weeks we greatly enjoyed the ministry of Rev. R. T. Sellick, of Oxford, N. S., whose preaching was with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven, resulting in several conversions, some reclaimed, others sanctified. The attendance increased, with a full house on the last two Sundays. During the campaign several came from the Bethany Bible College at Yarmouth, also from Sandford and Brazil Lake and were an inspiration to the meeting. If all who were under much conviction had yielded, the community would have been very greatly stirred.

However, we as a church express our appreciation of the faithfulness of our guest speaker (hoping to have him again some time) and seek to press the battle on to victory. Remember us in prayer, please.

To God be all the glory for all accomplished.

Yours for Scriptural Holiness,

L. T. SABINE
