

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

The Reformed Baptist Church of Truro, N. S., was organized Friday, Dec. 10th, in a very impressive service. Sixteen charter members are banded together for the spread of scriptural holiness in Truro and vicinity. See report.

Our new Truro church is "on the air"! On Tuesday, Dec. 14th, a series of weekly broadcasts was inaugurated over CKCL, Truro, 1400 Kc. The programme is directed by the pastor, Rev. N. E. Trafton and is broadcast from 9.30 to 10.00 each Tuesday evening. May God bless this new radio ministry.

The Christian Witness Broadcast, weekly radio ministry from our Moncton Church, returned to the air Sunday, Dec. 12th. This is the fifth season of broadcasting for this programme and this year it is at a different and better time, 9.00—9.30 Sunday evening over CKCW, Moncton, 1220 Kc.

A special campaign will be conducted at Moncton January 2nd—16th with Rev. R. H. Parks as evangelist.

All our people will rejoice to read of the "Crosby Memorial Chapel" at Bethany Bible College. May the consecrated spirit of Mrs. George Crosby and her late husband, provoke others to love and good works. If others who are in a position to do so would "do likewise" the progress of our denominational programme would be greatly accelerated.

Interest in the new Budget System which was adopted at Beulah last year is quickening. Already some churches have sent in the full allotment for certain phases of the work. From a "we can't do it" reaction at first, some churches changed to a "we'll try" spirit, and now have definite prospects of saying "we have"! Praise the Lord!

A SPECIAL APPEAL

A cable has been received from Rev. E. M. Kierstead stating that Mrs. Kierstead (Gladys) is very ill. Mrs. Kierstead's health has been a matter of concern to us for some months but it seems that a crisis has been reached. We earnestly request that all our Highway readers will immediately take this matter to the Lord in prayer.

QUARTERLY MEETING REPORT

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 3 convened at Seal Cove, Dec. 2nd—5th. Praise the Lord for honouring us with His presence!

Ministers present were: Revs. J. A. Owens, R. T. Sabine and F. A. Anderson. Licentiate Mrs. J. A. Owens and Bernard E. Tatten.

Encouraging reports, written and verbal, were received from the churches of the District.

We were pleased to have as visitors Rev. Floyd Haney of the North Head, U. B. church, and a fine representation from the Grand Manan "Youth for Christ" work.

The various speakers brought splendid messages to the edification of the saints. There was evidence of conviction on the unsaved but we regret to report that no one responded to the Gospel invitation.

A hearty vote of thanks was extended the Seal Cove church for the fine entertainment provided the visiting ministers and delegates. An invitation from the North Head church to hold the March Quarterly there was accepted.

LIC. BERNARD E. TATTEN,

Secretary.

ANNOUNCING THE NEW "CROSBY MEMORIAL CHAPEL"

Those who have visited our School know how great has been the need for an enlarged Chapel. The garage, which has been used for Chapel services, was much too small for our growing student body, and gave us no opportunity to encourage people outside our school to worship with us. This, as you very well know, is not the way we would have it.

When the School Board met last September this matter came up for consideration. After some discussion, the Board decided to provide some suitable building to meet the above stated need. Rev. Ingersol and I, were appointed to carry out the wishes of the Board.

Now, to provide the building was a small task, but to pay for the building, was quite a different matter. Knowing, the heavy financial burden our people are under, we wondered where money would come from to meet the need. The men were at work, orders for material were being placed, the Chapel was going up, but where was the money to be found? Well, anything can happen when God is taken into account.

Mrs. George Crosby, whose generosity is well known to our people, thought to make a gift toward this project to the amount of Two Thousand Dollars, ($2,000). Hence, we are dedicating this building in memory of her late husband, George Crosby and Mrs. Crosby, to be known as the "Crosby Memorial Chapel". Well, I say, praise the Lord!

I think nothing in years has strengthened my morale as has this magnificent gift. We like to know that the people have confidence in our enterprises, and who could question this confidence in the face of such gestures as we happily announce. Our Denomination owes a vote of gratitude to this good woman.

We will be sending a picture of the Chapel to the editor of our paper for publication so soon as the building is completed. The size of the building is forty by twenty-seven. It has a pitch roof; a tower, that serves also as an entry; it will be lighted with fluorescent lighting, and all in all, will fill a large place in the spiritual life of the School. I think Rev. Ingersol is going to write something about the seating of this building. Watch for his letter in a later issue. F. A. DUNLOP.

HIS NAME

Isaiah 9:6

Wonderful that He should love me—

All unworthy, stained with sin.

Wonderful that He has saved me;

In His blood I am made clean.

Counsellor—yes, mine to guide me

When the way seems lone and dim,

All His wisdom mine for asking;

All is plain when I trust Him.

The mighty God—no one above Him!

Ruler of all things is He!

Glory—Power—Might—Dominion

Yet He knows and thinks of me.

And The Everlasting Father—

With a father's love and care,

Gentle, thoughtful, kind, forgiving—

Watches o'er me—hears my prayer.

Prince of Peace in a world of turmoil?

Peace, when there seems naught but strife?

Yes, for when He dwells within me

Peace and joy fill all my life.

—John R. Martin, in Sunday School Times.
