

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Special services will be conducted at Havelock, N. S., June 13th-27th, with Rev. R. T. Sellick assisting the pastor, Rev. M. M. Grant. Lic. Miriam Sanders is assisting Rev. B. D. Price in special services.

The students of Bethany Bible College are busily engaged in the work of the Lord conducting services in nearly a dozen different places each week-end.

Rev. Alexander Marks, blind Jewish evangelist, will preach at our Moncton Church May 9th and 10th.

Lic. Douglas Webb, of Lower Hainesville, N. B., writes that he is open for a call to the Lord's work and prepared to serve as opportunity is given.

Alliance and Camp Meeting time will be upon us very soon. It is not too early for church clerks and special committees to be working on their reports. An early start would enable all to make final changes and additions quickly so as to have reports ready on time.

We can have a great summer in spiritual service if we make plans and prepare with prayer and care. Two great Camp Meetings at Beulah and Riverside, Tent Meetings, Daily Vacation Bible Schools, etc., can add up to replacing the usual summer "slump" with two months of blessing and victory. Let us pray and work to that end!

THE PERILS OF WEALTH

R. B. Warren

As the rich young ruler turned away from the challenge of the Cross, Jesus said, "Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God." "It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God." The disciples were astonished and asked, "Who then can be saved?" Jesus replied, "With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible" (Mark 10).

How wise is the ancient proverb: "Give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient for me, lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the Lord? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain" (Prov. 30:8, 9).

We all recognize the necessity of money. Sin enters when we place it before God. "The love of money is the root of all evil" (1 Tim. 6:10). Money cannot buy the greatest things. To trust in it will bar us from the Kingdom. There are rich men whose consecrated wealth is being used to the glory of God. They have entered the Kingdom. But the grave perils which beset the rich must not be ignored. Do not forget the lesson of the camel and the needle's eye; and remember that God can do the impossible.

EUROPEAN REMNANT

The recent war in Europe has accentuated a fact which was too little realized before the war, namely, the relatively small number of people in practically all European countries who showed any interest whatsoever in active Christianity, or were even enrolled in the churches.

In France today there are 500,000 Protestants, mainly Reformed and Lutheran, and 5,500,500 Catholics. These 6,000,000 Christians live in a total population of 37,000,000, leaving 31,000,000 people avowedly secular or neutral on the subject of the Christian faith.

Belgium has 60,000 Protestants and 2,300,000 Catholics in a total population of between eight and nine million.

In Holland the Protestants, mainly Reformed, number 3,500,000, the Roman Catholics 3,000,000, and the "neutrals" 3,000,000.

Great Britain's 40,000,000 people have about

4,300,000 active churchgoers. This number is almost equally divided between Protestants and Roman Catholics.

In Italy about twelve per cent of the people attend mass.—Christian Union Herald.

SOUL WINNING

Brainerd said, "I care not how or where I live, or what hardships I go through, so that I can gain souls to Christ."

Matthew Henry wrote: "I would think it a greater happiness to gain one soul to Christ than mountains of silver and gold to myself."

Fletcher of Madeley said to Samuel Bradburn: "If you should live to preach the gospel forty years, and be the instrument of saving only one soul, it will be worth all your labors."

Said Spurgeon: "Husbandman, your Great Employer sent you out to sow the seed, but if no grain of it would ever come up, if you sowed the seed as He told you, and where He told you, He will never lay the blame of a defective harvest on you."—Selected.
