

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Bethany Bible College will open its doors to the student body of 1948-49 on Wednesday, Sept. 8th. A record enrollment is expected.

The new boys' dormitory at Bethany, which is nearing completion, will be named "Rogers Residence," in memory of our beloved brother, Rev. G. A. Rogers.

Rev. F. A. Dunlop will join the Faculty of Bethany Bible College for this year to fill the vacancy created by Brother Rogers' death.

Other teachers and workers at Bethany for this year are Rev. H. E. Enty, principal; Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Ingersoll and Frances Moses, who will serve as dean of women.

The Ambassadors, Rev. N. E. Trafton and Lic. Randolph Nicholson, will open an evangelistic campaign in our new Truro church, Sunday, Sept. 12th.

Rev. A. D. Cann is supplying at Doaktown, N. B., for part of the month of September.

Revs. H. M. Kimball and G. R. Symonds have been co-workers in a tent meeting at Bloomfield, N. B. The services have been largely attended and many have sought the Lord. A baptism was held Sunday, Aug. 29th, and a new church is being organized. Praise the Lord.

The summer season is past. The Lord gave us a splendid Alliance, two blessed Camp Meetings, a fine Youth Camp, and at least three good summer revival campaigns. And now we "settle down" to concentrated effort in the school, the local church, and in the new communities where work is being opened. May God give us a banner year!

A CALL TO PRAYER

At Beulah Camp the Superintendent requested that our pastors and people observe Friday of each week as a day of prayer for the progress of our work. Scores of people pledged themselves to special prayer each Friday for the blessing of the Lord upon our various denominational efforts. Encouraging reports come from various sections, reports which indicate that many are uniting in weekly petitions to God for His blessing upon us. Will you join the circle? "Let us advance on our knees."

COMFORT THROUGH SINGING

By R. Barclay Warren

It was Sunday evening and two or three hundred people were lustily singing under canvas in a grove of pine and maple. I noticed a young woman in her thirties whose eyes became dimmed with tears. She continued to sing and unobtrusively brushed away the tears.

Why the tears? They did not seem to be tears of remorse or grief. Neither were they tears of joy for while she continued to sing there was evidence of a struggle.

Then I remembered. Four months ago, this young woman's husband was taken suddenly ill and in less than a week he passed away. Then I noted the words of the song we were singing and I understood.

"God is still on the throne,
And he will remember His own;
Tho' trials may press us and burdens distress us,

He never will leave us alone;
God is still on the throne,
He never forsaketh his own;
His promise is true, He will not forget you,
God is still on the throne."

In bereavement one often weeps afresh when close friends express their sympathy. While singing she had sensed anew the consciousness of the presence and comfort of God in her aloneness. A few tears came unbidden. But she kept on singing. Fresh strength had come to her heart. God would never forsake her.

LET US GO ON

Some of us stay at the cross;
Some of us wait at the tomb,
Quickened and raised together with Christ,
Yet lingering still in its gloom;
Some of us bide at the Passover feast
With Pentecost all unknown —
The triumphs of grace in the heavenly place
That our Lord has made our own.

If the Christ who died had stopped at the cross,

His work had been incomplete;

If the Christ who was buried had stayed in the tomb,

He had only known defeat;

But the way of the cross never stops at the cross,

And the way of the tomb leads on

To victorious grace in the heavenly place
Where the risen Lord has gone.

So let us go on with our Lord

To the fullness of God He has brought,
Unsearchable riches of glory and good

Exceeding our uttermost thought;

Let us grow up into Christ,

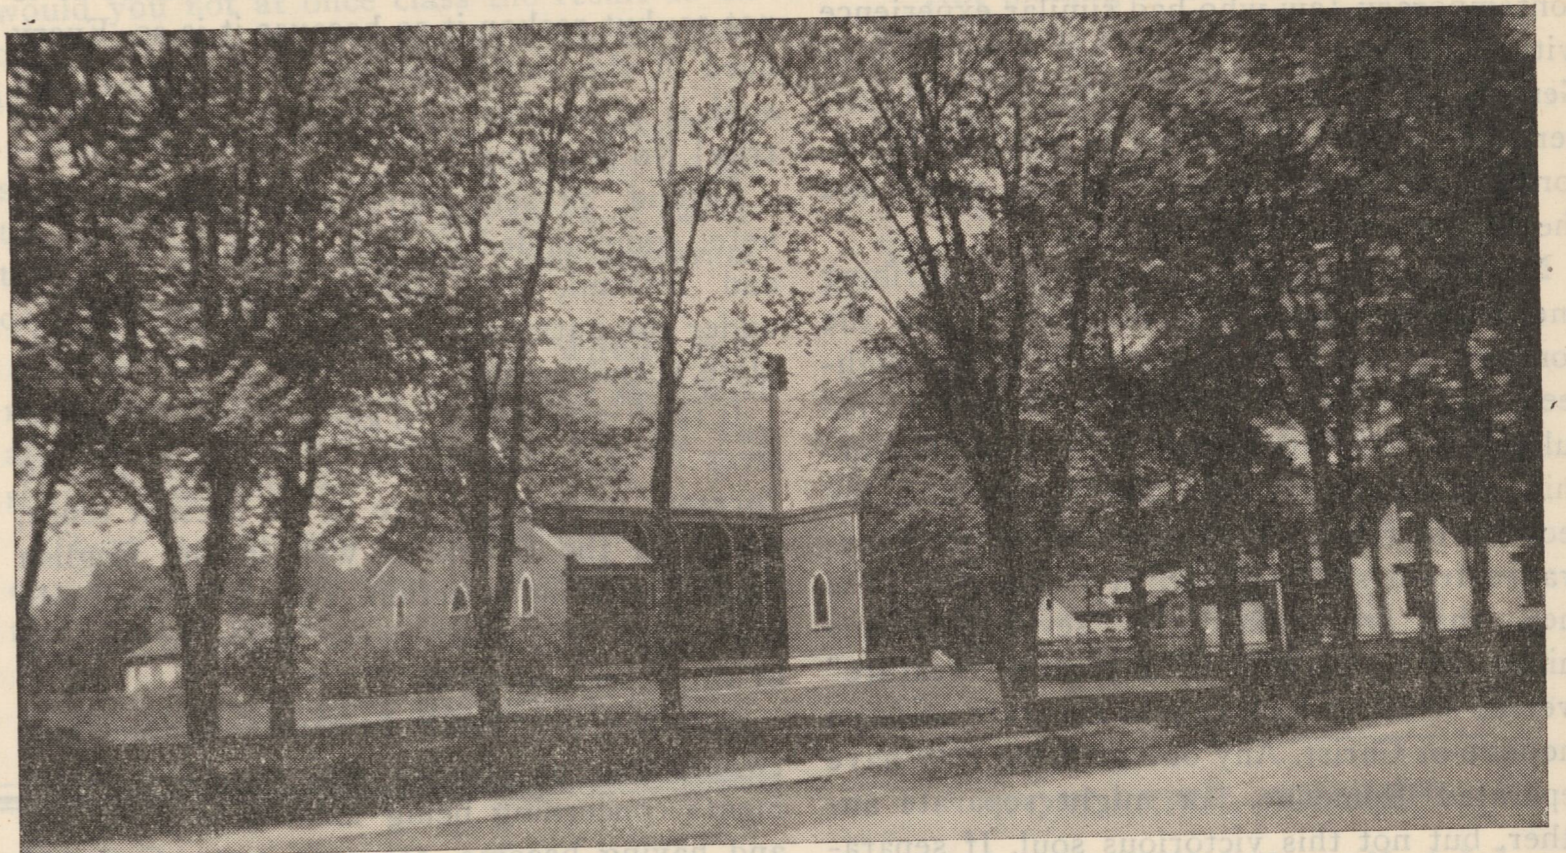

Claiming His life and its power—

The triumphs of grace in the heavenly place
That our conquering Lord has made ours.

THE NEW TRURO PROPERTY

Above is a picture of the new property at Truro, N. S., recently purchased. It is a beautiful possession located in the heart of Truro, a thriving town of 10,000 or more inhabitants. The lot is 185 x 165 and the church building is surrounded by a beautiful green bordered by fine shade trees. The building itself is a splendid plant and in excellent repair. It contains a fine auditorium, pastors' study, choir room, prayer room, cloak room, and a larger room for prayer meeting use. There is a full-sized basement under the building with a fine cement floor and wall sheathed and painted. On the second floor of the building there is a fine apartment which serves as pastor's residence. There are five rooms and a bath, with hardwood floors in all rooms except the bath room. This is a beautiful property and affords us a wonderful opportunity for service in the hub town of Nova Scotia.

A fine Gospel work has been carried on in this building for more than twenty years under Evangelist F. G. Strickland. Brother Strickland has been greatly blessed of the Lord in his ministry in Truro and we pray that the soul-saving work which has been carried on under his ministry will continue as we take up the work.

This property was purchased at a cost of $20,000 to us. More than double this amount was offered by a secular organization but the offer was refused as the owner desired that the ministry of the Gospel be continued in the building.

This is an opening which presents a great opportunity and involves great responsibility. May God make us a blessing in Truro!
