

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

A new Reformed Baptist Church was organized at Bloomfield, N. B., on Jan. 26th, with twenty-five members given the right hand of fellowship by the pastor, Rev. H. M. Kimball. See report on Page 5.

Rev. H. E. Mullen and our church at Fredericton engaged in special services Jan. 16th-30th, with Rev. Richard Traver as evangelist. The Highway Editor had the privilege of attending the service of Jan. 25th. Attendance and interest in the campaign were splendid.

Rev. Mabel Manning was forced to cancel engagements with Rev. A. D. Cann and our churches at Hartland, Victoria and Lower Brighton, due to illness.

A revival campaign opened at North Head, N. B., Feb. 1st, with Rev. Richard Traver assisting the pastor, Rev. J. A. Owens.

Rev. H. S. Mullen, of Port Maitland, N. S., has tendered his resignation to the Port Maitland-Sandford Church, and is open for a call for the ensuing church year.

Rev. H. C. Mullen, of Meductic, N. B., is resigning from the churches of the Meductic circuit, and will be open for a call.

Rev. J. A. Owens, of North Head, N. B., has resigned and is open for a call as the Lord leads.

Lic. Walter Fernley, of Bethany Bible College, graduates this spring and will be open for a call to pastoral work for the new church year.

Lic. Roosevelt Benson also completes his studies at Bethany Bible College this spring and will be open for a call to pastoral work for the next church year.

Will pastors and those open for calls please notify The Highway Editor as soon as their plans for next year are settled. This applies to those who accept a call to remain where they are, as well as those who may be moving. If we can have good co-operation in this respect, valuable time may be saved. If our churches are informed concerning those who are settled for next year it may save them from calling men who are not available.

SUPPLEMENTARY FUND

Mrs. Charles Churchill .....	$1.50
Mrs. W. W. Patterson .....	.50
Mrs. G. H. Olsen .....	.50

CONTRIBUTIONS FOR FOREIGN MISSIONS

For General Fund:

G. Wallace Green (in memory of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Green) .....	$1000.00
Sandford Church .....	250.00
Fort Fairfield Church .....	140.00
Seal Cove Missionary Society .....	123.13
Mrs. Manning Mullen for native Church .....	100.00
Mrs. George Crosby for native Church .....	100.00
Black's Harbour Church .....	100.00
William Morgan, Jr. ....	100.00
Beals Sunday School .....	93.00
Woodstock Missionary Society .....	84.00
Fredericton Church .....	82.70
Fredericton Missionary Society .....	71.00
Saint John Missionary Society .....	60.00
Wood Island Church .....	56.00
Royalton Sunday School .....	26.59
Moncton Missionary Society .....	25.00
Presque Isle Church .....	24.00

Lower Brighton Missionary Society ....	20.00
Mrs. Alfred Beal .....	20.00
Head of Millstream .....	11.00
Fred MacCormack .....	5.00
A Friend (per Rev. P. J. Trafton) .....	5.00

Gifts for Missionaries —

Beals Young People's Society .....	20.00
Mrs. H. G. McCrea .....	10.00
Mrs. Vesta Stephenson .....	10.00
Mrs. Russell Lewis .....	5.00
Mrs. H. E. Beech .....	2.00

Native Workers—

Moncton Missionary Society .....	25.00
Mrs. Manning Mullen .....	15.00
Miss Flora Brown .....	15.00
Miss Helen Goodspeed .....	10.00

We know that God's blessing will rest upon all who have given so generously to his cause, and pray that he may continue to move upon the hearts of His people, so that His work may prosper and those who sit in darkness may receive the Light of Life.

F. A. WATSON, Treasurer

QUARTERLY MEETING REPORT

The December Quarterly Meeting of District No. 4 was held on the 9th to the 12th, at Port Maitland, N. S. There was preaching Thursday evening by Lic. Bruce Bridgeo and on Friday evening by Rev. H. R. Ingersoll. The business session held on Saturday afternoon enjoyed encouraging letters from various churches of the District. Also verbal reports were given and discussions of the work contributed no small part. The Spring meeting was cordially invited to convene with the Woods Harbour Church (the time to be given later).

Rev. H. E. Enty, President of B. B. C., brought a fine message on Saturday evening. The "Love Feast" on Sunday morning was conducted by Robert Landers. This was a really good service.

A student of B. B. C., Leslie Hicks, brought a good message at 10.30 Sunday. Rev. L. T. Sabine preached in the afternoon and Rev. M. M. Grant at the evening service.

The Port Maitland Church, as usual, entertained the Quarterly Meeting royally, receiving a vote of thanks for the same.

The attendance was good throughout and the singing enjoyed by all.

We trust that the meeting was a blessing to the church and people, encouraging all to press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

L. T. S., President

A PLAN FOR EACH

Every human soul has a complete and perfect plan, cherished for it in the heart of God—a divine biography marked out, which it enters into life to live.

This life, rightly unfolded, will be a complete and beautiful whole, an experience led on by God and unfolded by His secret nurture, as the trees and the flowers by the secret nurture of the world. It will be a drama cast in the mold of a perfect art, with no part wanting; a divine study for the man himself, and for others; a study that shall forever unfold in wondrous beauty the love and faithfulness of God; great in its conception, great in the divine skill by which it is shaped. Above all, it will be great in the momentous and glorious issues it prepares.

What a thought is this for every human soul to cherish! What dignity does it add to life! What support does it bring to the trials of life! What instigations does it add to send us onward in everything that constitutes our excellence!

We live in the divine thought. We fill a place in the great, everlasting plan of God's intelligence. We never sink below His care, never drop out of His counsel.—Horace Bushnell.

"BIBLE THROUGH"

I supposed I knew my Bible,
Reading piecemeal, hit and miss,
Now a bit of John and Matthew,
Now a snatch of Genesis,
Certain chapters of Isaiah,
Certain Psalms (take twenty-third),
Twelfth of Romans, first of Proverbs —
Yes, I thought I knew the Word.
But I found that though reading
Was a different thing to do,
And the way was unfamiliar
When I read the Bible through.

You who like to play at Bible,
Dip and dabble, here and there,
Just before you kneel, a-weary,
And yawn through a hurried prayer;
You who treat the Crown of Writings
As you treat no other book—
Just a paragraph disjointed,
Just a crude, impatient look—
Try a worthier procedure,
Try a broad and steady view;
You will kneel in very rapture
When you read the Bible through.

—Selected

THE COMMON DAYS

God keeps us through the common days,
The level stretches white with dust,
When thought is tired, and hands upraise
Their burdens feebly, since they must.
In days of slowly fretting care,
Then most we need the strength of prayer.

Unthanked, unnoticed and unknown,
Blamed sometimes and misunderstood;
Yet if our Lord but sees our work,
And by His grace shall own it good,
It will not matter what men say,
Since God is Judge of all, not they.

—Selected

THE WILL OF GOD

There are peculiar storms in the Indian Ocean—typhoons and monsoons. They are peculiar in that they do not move very rapidly. They do not move practically at all from east to west or from north to south; instead, they play around in a circle.

I was told by a sea captain that before the navigators understood the characteristics of these storms, if they tried to come out of them they were dismantled and foundered.

"Now," he said, "when we run into a monsoon we locate its center, and we go around it. By and by we narrow the circle; when we get into the center, we are in a dead calm."

This is like God's will. Try to get out of it, and you will find it a destructive force. Get into it, and you are in a calm, and it is good, acceptable, and perfect, as it is so graphically described by the apostle Paul in Romans 12. Oh, to stand fully persuaded in all the will of God!—F. W. Troy.

Is your subscription overdue? If so, please send your renewal to the editor.