THE PASTOR, THE CHURCH AND THE YOUNG PEOPLE

that such an effort would be beneath them. But I am convinced that it would be more likely to be above us. No one is more appreciative of effort made in their interests than boys and girls. The personal effort will make them feel they are a part of the service as well as the grown up people. It is often argued that children make failures, but so also do adults. If there is any place in our protestant religion that needs reinforcing it is in our reaching boys and girls for Jesus. An adult saved is a soul saved, but a child saved is a life saved. It seems that one reason we have a lost generation of young people is because of neglect to reach them while they were still boys and girls. Some may argue that they were saved without having anything extra to induce them to attend church. True. Doubtless such had parents that took or sent them to church. What about the children whose parents do not care? It seems evident that with much prayer and definite effort for the boys and girls, we could reach a greater harvest of young lives for Christ.

GREAT THOUGHTS

The youth who is easily lead is never likely to be a leader.

Who purposely cheats his friend, would cheat his God.—Lavater.

It is ever my thought that the most God-fearing man should be the most blithe man.—Thomas Carlyle.

If you can't get to be uncommon through going straight, you'll never get to do it through being crooked.—Dickens.

The younger generation must learn the lesson of life for themselves, and they will learn it better if they are not lectured to by their elders.—Earl of Balfour.

FLASHES FROM MANY LIGHTS

J. O. House, Observer

- ✓ Christ is God's great model for the muddled lives of humanity.
- ✓ Troubles translated into heavenly language means education.
- ✓ It is easier to use Bible language than to obey Bible commands.
- ✓ Common sense is the knack of seeing things as they ought to be done.
- ✓ Don't compare your goodness with that of other persons, but with the Man of Galilee.
- ✓ You cannot dream yourself into a character—you must hammer and forge yourself.
- ✓ Are you just a cheap, shoddy Christian, with just a little religion rubbed on the outside?
- ✓ A peace plan without the Prince of Peace is just about as secure as a ship without a bottom.
- ✓ Do not let God's praise remain unsung because a full-toned organ is not at hand for accompaniment.
- ✓ If anyone does not glorify God, that individual is a failure in God's sight. He is useless—he is human garbage.
- ✓ The whole missionary enterprise is dependent on the supernatural life operating within the Church—she must ever be bleeding to bless.

GOOD ADVICE

If anything unkind you hear
About someone you know, my dear,
Do not, I pray you, it repeat
When you that someone chance to meet,
For such news has a leaden way
Of clouding o'er a sunny day.

But if you something pleasant hear
About someone you know, my dear,
Make careful moves day after day,
To her or him the same to tell—
For such news has a golden way
Of lighting up a cloudy day.

—Sel.

LIFE

By Pearl Holloway

Life is a game which all must play,
Make careful moves day after day,
Each in his own appointed way—
Life is a game.

Life is a business, and we
Must do our part, each faithful be;
It's well worth while you will agree—
A business is life.

Life is a joy. Though sorrow, pain
And grief be ours, it is not vain;
We trace a rainbow through the rain—
Life is a joy.

A business, a game, a joy—
Each man and woman, girl and boy
May share its fullness. Do not destroy
The happiness of life.
