BETHANY BIBLE COLLEGE "BEACON"

A splendid offer is being made by the student body of the Bible College. If you can sell 5 subscriptions for the coming year you will get free a year's issue yourself. Also to the individual who sells most a free copy of the College Year Book will be presented to you. Why not try to help those who labour and do their best to publish this college paper. Bethany expects those who believe in the success and growth of the college to help boost it, this is one of the ways to do so. Send all the names and addresses to:

THIS I KNOW

I do not know what next may come
Across my pilgrim way,
I do not know tomorrow's road,
Nor see beyond today;
But this I know—my Saviour knows,
The path I cannot see,
And I can trust His wounded hand
To guide and care for me.

I do not know what may befall
Of sunshine or of rain;
I do not know what may be mine
Of pleasure or of pain;
But this I know—my Saviour knows,
And whatso'er it be;
Still I can trust His love to give
What will be best for me.

I do not know what may await,
Or what the morrow brings;
But with the glad salute of faith
I hail its opening wings!
For this I know—that in my Lord
Shall all my need be met,
And I can trust the heart of Him
Who has not failed me yet.

A real Christian should be like a good watch
—have an open face, be busy, be pure gold,
well regulated and full of good works.

GOD

Some think of God with reverent awe,
And some, with fear and dread;
Some think of Him with nonchalance,
Some, as though He were dead.

To some, He is the Sunset
At the closing of the day;
To others, He's the Beauty
They see along life's way.

Some see their God in nature,
In the sky, and tossing sea;
Some see Him in the good in man,—
The best in you and me.

To me, my God is Father,—
A Guide along life's way;
A friend in whom I can confide
The happenings of each day.

He knows my joys and sorrows,
He tells me what to do.
If you should listen carefully,
I'm sure He'd tell you too. —Carol Oulton

"Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in Him.

—1 John 2:15.

THE INDWELLING OF JESUS

"That Christ may dwell in your heart by faith" (Eph. 3:17).

Paul in his letter to the Romans spoke of sin indwelling, "the sin that dwelleth in me" (7:17) but in his letter to the Galatians he said, "Christ liveth in me". Evidently he had experienced an experience whereby he could give such a testimony, and what a glorious thing to be able to say, "No more I, but Christ liveth in me".

The indwelling of Jesus Christ in the human heart bespeaks spiritual cleansing. Without doubt, the first act when He moves in will be to have a temple cleansing, and thus fit the place for His abode! He would hardly take up His lasting abode in an unclean temple. No: He is the sanctifying Saviour.

The indwelling of Jesus Christ in the human heart bespeaks spiritual assurance, Christ within assuring. That is greater than any manifestation or sign. It comes from the Person within; the One who has taken up His lasting abode in our heart.

The indwelling of Jesus Christ in the human heart bespeaks hope, "Christ within, the hope of glory". He is the Christian's hope of glory.

The indwelling of Jesus Christ in the human heart bespeaks friendship and comfort:

"What a Friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!
What a privilege to carry
Everything to Him in prayer!"

or as another has put it:

"He walks with me and He talks with me,
And He tells me I am His own;
And the joy we share as we tarry there,
None other has ever known."

Help me, O Christ within, to never grieve Thee but to always obey and glorify Thee!

"Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and bow not unto thine own understanding."

"Commit thy way unto the Lord, trust also in Him, and He shall bring it to pass."
