

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Rev. G. R. Symonds writes:

Rev. H. M. Kimball and I have been having special services at Lansdowne for the past two weeks. Have had good meetings, good attendance and some results.

Fredericton, N. B.

We had a three Sunday meeting, with the Mullen Trio, closing Oct. 29th. During that time we saw a goodly number of seekers at the altar.

The singing and preaching were owned of God, and we are still hearing reports of the blessing this gospel team was to our church. We trust God will continue to use these folk to His honor and glory.

H. E. MULLEN

North Head, G. M., N. B.

Dear Brother Dow:

Please find enclosed a money order to pay for The Highway to November, 51.

I enjoy very much reading your sermons in the paper, and hope I'll see more as the weeks go by.

My heart is filled with praises to God for two weeks of grace wrought within. Praise God that sanctifying grace stands up to the wear and tear of every day life.

I still feel the call of God upon me to preach the gospel and during the winter months would be glad to go to any church in special meetings as God leads the way.

My creed is this: Old fashioned full salvation unmodernized.

May God bless us as a denomination entrusted with the doctrine of "Holiness unto the Lord." By His help may we take new possessions for Him in our Maritime Provinces.

Yours praying for souls,

BERNARD TATTON

We had a fine meeting at Crystal but I took sick the last week and just had to drag through the remainder of the meeting. I have been confined to the house since then but I believe I am on the mend now. We are expecting to have special meetings in Doaktown Dec. 3rd to 10th. Rev. B. C. Cochrane and DeVerne Mullen as workers.

R. H. NICHOLSON

evs. J. A. Owens, F. A. Watson, F. A. Anderson, R. T. Sabine and N. E. Trafton attended the Tuesday evening Revival Service at Sandford, N. S., while in Yarmouth for the Bible School Board Meeting. They reported a good meeting. The members of the Board feel our school is on the advance. Two more students arrived on Wednesday, the 15th.

PERSONALS

Mr. Ben Stillwell, of Lower Hainesville, has been sick with pneumonia. He is better now.

Mrs. Will Clark continues in a weakened condition.

Rev. P. J. Trafton writes that he is not feeling too strong these days, but he is able to go to the hospital and visit the sick there. He still enjoys the Blessing in his soul.

Mrs. Gordon Symonds, of Perth, N. B., and Mrs. Herman Anderson, of Meductic, have both been in the hospital at Fredericton recently where they underwent major operations. We are glad to hear that they are making satisfactory recovery.

Clarence Dow, of Calais, writes that his father, Adwin, just came home from the hospital in St. Stephen, where he had been taking treatment, and is feeling stronger. Adwin's two married daughters, Muriel and Lois, and their families came from Boston to be home and spend Thanksgiving with their father and sister, Ruth.

Mrs. Annie Millham, of Newport, R. I., says: I enjoy The Highway so much and receive great blessing in reading it. Clarence Dow writes: I thank God for entire sanctification, the experience I received under Rev. W. E. Smith's preaching.

W. Somerville, Mass.

Dear Bro Dow:

Enclosed is a postal note towards the King's Highway.

Still enjoy reading your fine paper and may the Lord bless you in the good work. I thank the Lord for all His goodness to me. We can find many things for which we can be thankful. May this be a good year for you all.

Very sincerely yours,

EMMOR K. RAMSEY.

The Foreign Mission Board is planning to send Miss Uta Chase to Africa along with Miss Nina Smith, who was to have sailed in November. Plans have not been completed yet, but it is expected they will sail on the M. S. "Thorstrand" of the Christensen Canadian South African Line, about the latter part of January.

We also expect the Parks will be coming home next spring, and arrangements are being made to that end. All this is going to cost money, so we trust the churches will do their best to reach their missionary budgets this year.

F. A. ANDERSON

Bethany Bible College is in need of a much larger library. The School Board requests that if any of The Highway readers have books which they are willing to part with, they give them to this worthy cause. Send them direct to Bethany Bible College, Yarmouth, N. S. They will be acknowledged, and shipping charges paid at the shippers' request.

THE WAY—THE TRUTH—THE LIFE

Thou art the Way!

All ways are thorny mazes without Thee,
Where hearts are pierced, and thoughts all
aimless stray;

In Thee the heart stands firm, the life moves
free;

Thou art the Way!

Thou art the Truth!

Questions the ages break against in vain
Confronts the spirit in its untried youth;
It starves, while sifting poison from the grain;

Thou art the Truth!

Thou art the Life!

All ways without Thee paths that end in death;

All life without Thee with death-harvest rife;
All truths dry bones, disjointed, void of breath.

Thou art the Life!

—Elizabeth R. Charles

ADJUSTED TO CRITICISM

We talk about being properly adjusted to God and circumstances, hence this should apply to criticism as well. Friends, are you criticized and depreciated? If so, perhaps you have been unwise and deserve what you get. Therefore, let it mellow, broaden and deepen you.

But suppose it is unjust? Then, capitalize it by earnestly praying for those who oppose you or your methods. This will produce a salutary effect and either draw you together or so enlarge, enrich and elevate you that ere long you, like the eagle, will rise above all that hurts. Try it!—E. E. Shelhamer.

Most evangelists take with them a song leader. Finney took a pray-er, Father Nash, and while Finney was preaching, Nash was praying. Somewhere out in the woods this mighty prayer warrior would bury his face in his hands and in agony of soul, cry out to God to use Finney to the conversion of lost men and women. Finney, himself, knew what it was to travail in prayer. William Bramwell agonized for 36 hours in a sand pit without food, for the souls of men. All God's servants, down through the centuries, have travailed in prayer. Those who know how to travail, know what I am talking about, for soul travail is part of the price that must be paid for revival.—Oswald Smith.
