IT WORKS

The American preacher Dr. Pentecost, once met a free thinker, who twitted the divine for putting any faith in the Bible, seeing that authorship of some of its parts was so uncertain, and the subject of much debate. "Look here," said the doctor, "who wrote the multiplication table?" "I don't know", confessed the sceptic. "What a man you are!" said Dr. Pentecost. "You believe it and you use it, and yet you don't know who wrote it."

This placed the caviller in some difficulty, but thinking he saw a way out of it, he said, "But the multiplication table works!" "Doubtless," was the triumphant retort of the preacher, "and so does the Bible."

HOME?? NOT YET

When the late Dr. Henry C. Morrison came home from one of his many travels, we are told that he arrived in the city of New York at the same time and on the same ship that brought the great "Teddy" Roosevelt from one of his hunting trips to Africa. Literally thousands swarmed the docks to greet the noted hunter, but not a soul was there to welcome Dr. Morrison. Dr. Morrison relates how Satan the accuser, whispered to him, "Aha, see how they greet the great men of the world and you—one of God's preachers—without a single soul to greet you." This great man of God admitted that in the loneliness of his heart there could have been a place for a hurt, but the Father sweetly whispered, "Yes, but Henry, you are not home yet".

The evangel.

One writer recently said, "It is not nearly so difficult to win souls from sin to Christ as most people imagine. There is something within almost every breast that responds to a kindly exhortation to reepntance and faith in our Lord and Saviour for the forgiveness of sins. In more than 50 years in the ministry, and speaking personally to many thousands about their souls, only a few times have I met with discourtesy or resentment; most always with thanks and expressions of appreciation."

And I can homeward run,
In thee I trust,
For thou art just,
And will supply
Me grace to die.

THE BLESSING OF DARK DAYS

Our Lord is constantly taking us into the dark, that he May tell us things. Into the dark of the shadowed home, where bereavement has drawn the blinds; into the dark of the lonely, desolate life, where some infirmity closes us in from the light and stir of life; into the dark of some crushing sorrow and disappointment.

Then He tells us His secrets, great and wonderful; He causes the eye which has become dazzled by the glare of earth to behold the heavenly constellations; and the ear to detect the undertones of His voice, which are often drowned amid the tumult of earth's strident cries.—Rev. F. B. Meyer.

Holiness, a present duty, a present privilege, a present enjoyment, is the progress and completeness of this wondrous theme! It is the truth glowing over all, webbing all through revelation: the glorious truth which sparkles and whispers and sings and shouts in all its history and biography and poetry and prophecy and precept and promise and prayer; the great central truth of the system. The wonder is that all do not see; that any rise up to question a truth so conspicuous, so glorious, so full of comfort.—Bishop Foster.—Way of Faith.

DAILY STRENGTH

Lord give me strength I pray,
To do my work today;
To do it right,
With all my might,
Without mistake,
As for thy sake.
When doubt besets my way,
Let me the question lay
Before thy throne
Where all is known;
Where what is best will stand the test.
And when the day is drear,
May I keep very near,
And here thy voice,
And thus rejoice
That I am thine,
And thou art mine.
And when my world is done,
