

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Pastors who have accepted recalls to their churches for the coming year include: Rev. G. A. Delong, Fort Fairfield, Maine; Rev. G. R. Symonds, Perth, N. B.; Rev. R. H. Nicholson, Doaktown, N. B.; Rev. P. H. Greene, Saint John, N. B.; and Rev. R. L. Sabine, North Head, N. B.

Evangelist Rev. Willis Miller, of Winona, Ohio, and Pianist Earl Shnyder, who are in special services with Rev. H. E. Mullen and our church at Fredericton, have appointments with our Perth and Presque Isle churches following the Fredericton campaign.

The Mullen Trio, now in special services with Rev. J. A. Owens and our church at Millville, have an open date between April 2nd and May 7th. These good workers have been kept busy through the church year and have rendered splendid service. Contact them by writing Rev. H. S. Mullen, Millville, N. B.

Our church at Marysville is negotiating to purchase a fine new church building. More details and a picture of the new building will appear in a later issue of the Highway.

Interest in the church and Sunday School at Hartland, N. B., have shown such remarkable increase since the recent revival that plans for enlarging the church building are under consideration. Attendance at church services has increased until it is commonly necessary to bring in extra chairs to accommodate the people in regular services and the Sunday School has increased from 60-70 to 100-110. On Quarterly Meeting Sunday, March 12th, Sunday School attendance was 120.

Rev. Lee Good, Mr. Ford Foster, and Albert Dyer, the evangelistic team so greatly used of God in the Hartland revival, are conducting a special campaign in our church at Woodstock, N. B. Great crowds have been attending the services. The spacious auditorium of our church has been overcrowded with the congregations sometimes overflowing to the basement. Many have already sought the Lord.

Rev. G. A. Delong and the people of our Fort Fairfield Church have been holding meetings at a point near the Fort with good attendance and interest.

Rev. B. C. Cochrane will be at Bethany Bible College March 26th.—April 2nd. for special services with the president, Rev. F. A. Dunlop, the members of the Faculty and Student Body. Pray that the Lord may bless this campaign to the salvation of souls and the promotion of the work of holiness in Yarmouth.

On Sunday, March 19th, the regular worship service of our Saint John church will be broadcast over CFBC, with the pastor, Rev. P. H. Greene, preaching the message.

Rev. R. F. Woods, pastor of the Hamilton, Ontario, Nazarene Church, is at Seal Cove, N. B., in special meetings with Rev. R. T. Sabine and our church there. This information reached us too late for the last Highway.

Plans for the new Hotel-Dormitory to be erected at Riverside Camp are being drawn up. Please send your pledges to Mr. Otis Ames, Fort Fairfield, Maine.

People are already talking of Beulah Camp of 1950. Time will quickly slip by and it is not too early to plan for this great spiritual convocation. This year's evangelist is Rev. Russell Delong, Dean of the Nazarene Theological Seminary. Dr. Delong is regarded as one of the ablest preachers of the Holiness Movement. His voice is heard around the world on the radio programme "Showers of Blessings," and he is now completing a trip that has taken him around the globe preaching the Gospel.

We're anticipating a great Camp Meeting this year.

Here's a word from Rev. Eugene Kierstead that will be received with joy by all our people: "Gladys seems to have 'turned the corner' and appears to be on the mend." Continue to pray for Sister Kierstead.

LETTERS FROM OUR PASTORS

Box No. 12,
 Winter Harbor, Me.,
 Feb. 9, 1950.

Dear Highway Friends,

Greetings in Jesus' name from Winter Harbor, Me.

In these days of unrest we have an anchor that keeps the soul and we are praising the Lord for His saving and sanctifying power.

We have accepted the call to the pastorate of the Winter and Birch Harbors Baptist churches, and we are preaching the Gospel in its fullness. We have found here a splendid group of people who are devoted Christians who want God's best and are willing to work for the cause.

We have the pleasure of listening to the Bethany Hour and the Hunt Family over CJLS, Yarmouth, and they are a great blessing to us.

Pray for us that we will be faithful in this portion of God's vineyard and make our calling and election sure, bearing fruit for Him.

Yours for souls,
 LIC. & MRS. J. A. MOSES.

Westchester Station, N. S.

Dear Highway Friends:—

Two weeks of Special Services have just closed with our church here at Westchester, with Rev. B. C. Cochrane and wife, and DeVerne Mullen.

The special music and singing were enjoyed by all who came. Also the messages brought by the Evangelist were both inspiring and helpful.

During the first week of meeting the weather was bad and the attendance was rather small, but as the weather cleared during the last part of them the attendance picked up, and each service on the closing Sunday was well attended.

Although we didn't see all the results we would have liked to, we feel that as a church we were strengthened spiritually, and were glad to see seven find definite victory at an Altar of Prayer.

The last Saturday evening we had a Youth Rally especially for those who were unable to get home through the week. At the close of it, there were at least twelve young people who came forward and consecrated themselves to the Lord's work wherever He should call them.

On the last Sunday morning we had a Sunday School Rally, with a record attendance of seventy-eight.

We are grateful for all that was done, and trust that the Lord will continue to speak to the hearts of others that were moved and failed to respond. We are looking to Him for greater things in the future.

In His Service,
 REV. and MRS. A. L. STAIRS.

DIFFICULTIES ABOUT TEMPTATION

glorifies God more than for us to stand amid the fiery darts of the wicked and hurl them back.

There is a fine story told by Mrs. Jameson in her history of the early saints and martyrs. A Roman maiden was approached by a wicked man who sought her love and employed a noted magician to overcome her unwillingness, and poison her mind. Through this malign influence she was assailed by thoughts and imaginations of evil that had never before occurred to her, and in great distress she began to condemn herself as being guilty of great wickedness. She went to one of the apostolic fathers for counsel and learned from him, to her great joy, that these were the devil's thoughts and not hers; that if she would resist them in the name of the Lord and bid them depart, she would be delivered. It was even so, and the wicked man who had thrown over her this cloud of evil became convicted, and came to her to confess his sin and ask her forgiveness and prayer. When the devil brings his ill-favored children to our door, we do not need to adopt them. They are the devil's brats, and we can simply turn them back to him.

The Apostle tells us that on the cross the Lord Jesus "spoiled principalities and powers," and "made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it." He has hung up Satan as a scarecrow that all the world may know that he is despoiled and defeated. It is our privilege to treat him as a conquered foe, and in the name of the Son of God "resist the devil." He will flee from us and we shall be "more than conquerors."—The Alliance Weekly.

OBITUARY

Mrs. J. W. Estabrook, age 86, passed away recently at Mars Hill, Maine. She was a faithful follower of the Lord and a lover of the King's Highway. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Jarvis Clark and Mrs. Ruby Winslow, both of Mars Hill, Maine.

The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Donald Bickford, and was held from the Full Gospel Assembly, Mars Hill, Maine.

To those who mourn we extend sincere sympathy.
