

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

The survey and investigation of our Foreign Mission work having been completed, we expect D. V. to return to Canada possibly in the early spring. We shall be ready for "Pastoral Work" in the ensuing church year and thus will be open for a "Call" to any of the parishes desiring our services.

I will give as an alternative address for mail, —c/o S. H. Bradley, Hardings Pt., R. R. No. 2, Kings Co., N. B., Canada.

Yours in Him,

REV. R. H. PARKS.

Our Moncton Church and Sunday School held their annual Christmas programme on Wednesday evening, Dec. 27. The church was attractively decorated and a large congregation was in attendance, with many children who had part in the exercises by reciting and singing which was inspirational and much enjoyed by the large congregation. Everyone present received a treat and the pastor and his wife, Rev. E. W. and Mrs. Tokley were presented with a purse of money.

PERSONALS

Dear Brother Dow:

Find enclosed money order for Highway. Christmas is past, but the New Year is ahead. I trust it will be a good one for you, and the paper.

I hear many comments on it, how it has improved in many ways.

Willie and I are very well now.

Sincerely,

MRS. G. B. TRAFTON.

Sister Trafton is one of our highly esteemed elderly saints, who has taken the King's Highway from its beginning.—Editor.

Dear Highway Editor:

I enjoy your paper very much.

GEORGE DOAK.

My health is fairly good and I am enjoying the presence of the Holy Spirit. Praise His Holy Name.

Your Sister in the Lord,

B. E. STANLEY.

Dear Sir:

Am enclosing a postal note for $5.00 which I believe will cover my indebtedness to the Highway. I'm sorry for my neglect in this respect. I do not want to be without the Highway as I have been reading it from a child and I hope to keep it paid up in the future.

Yours truly,

MRS. RUSSELL L. LEWIS.

Dear Brother Dow:

I enclose money to pay for my Highway till Jan. '52, sorry I have not paid before. My mother took the Highway from the first one that was printed till 48 years ago she passed away and I have taken it ever since, and expect to the rest of my life.

May God bless you in all your work.

Yours in Christian fellowship,

MRS. E. ROBINSON,

Fredericton, N. B.

Dear Highway Friends:

I am truly ashamed of not having sent money long before this for so worthy a paper. When your last paper came it came to me with greater force, what a sin I was committing in not paying my just debts, forgive me for this. I do enjoy the paper and hope that this will not happen again.

Yours in His glad service,

MRS. WALTER SUNDERLAND.

This good sister's subscription was back only three months when she sent her renewal. How different people are. Some are back several years.—Editor.

Dear Brother Dow:

In response to your call for renewals to the Highway, this is just neglect on my part. Thank you for sending it so long, as we would miss it very much as it is the best paper on holiness we have ever read. May the God of all good bless you as a church in all your way.

Am sending a twenty dollar check, six for the Highway until June, 1952, use rest where most needed.

Your Brother and Sister in Christ,

MR. and MRS. V. H. BECKWITH,

Keene, N. H.

Dear Sir:

Enclosed please find money order for $2.00 for my renewal for the Highway.

I enjoy reading its clean pages. After I read it I pass it on to a friend.

Yours truly,

MRS. MINA B. CROWLEY.

SCRIPTURE READING

Some time ago a religious education test, taken among a representative group of college under-graduates, all of them nominally Christians of one persuasion or another, disclosed an almost incredible degree of ignorance.

About one-sixth of the students could not give the names of the Four Gospels; only about five per cent of them were able to designate all Ten Commandments. Thus the test made one thing perfectly clear: that for at least a generation there has been little or no religious instruction in American homes, and although the distribution of Bibles may be greater than ever very few of them are being read.—Washington Post.
