

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Ministers open for call for pastoral or evangelistic work:

- Emery C. Cann, Bethany Bible College.
- Rev. R. H. Parks, Greys Mills, N. B.
- Rev. George Sanders, Port Maitland, N. S.
- Rev. E. R. Watson, 25 Harrison St., Milltown, Me.

- Rev. A. L. Stairs, Westchester, N. S.
- Rev. H. S. Mullen, Havelock, N. S.
- Rev. F. A. Dunlop, Yarmouth, N. S.
- Rev. B. D. Price, Amherst, N. S.
- Rev. H. O. McGeorge, 15 Mechanic St., Presque Isle, Me.

- Rev. R. Benson, Greys Mills, N. B.
- Lic. Wilfred Green, Sackville, N. B.
- Rev. J. A. Moses, Winter Harbour, Maine.
- Lic. Scott Ingersoll, Bethany School, Yarmouth, N. S.
- Lic. James MacArthur, Island Falls, Maine.

Rev. H. S. Dow, pastor of the Head of Millstream church, on Sunday, April 1, tendered the church with his resignation, to be final, and to take effect at the end of the church year, 1951.

Rev. J. A. Owens has accepted a call to remain with the Millville group of churches for another year.

Rev. Ronald Sabine also remains pastor of the Seal Cove church, and Rev. P. H. Green has accepted a call to remain at St. John.

Thanks to Brother Cann for sending us several new subscribers, besides a renewal. Ed.

Rev. Dr. G. B. MacDonald, whom many of our readers know, and who has been pastor of the United Baptist church at Newcastle, N. B., for several years, will be moving to Hampton, N. B., May first. Rev. MacDonald is a valued subscriber to the King's Highway.

Rev. J. A. Owens and the church at Millville just finished a profitable revival there. And the evangelist, Rev. Yeattes is with Rev. H. E. Mullen and our church at Fredericton, the interest is good.

PERSONALS

A letter from our Sister, Louise Burpee Alexander, speaks of the passing of her good husband, David Alexander, whose obituary was in the last Highway. She surely misses him for he was a good man, converted several years ago, and has lived a consistent Christian for many years. All who knew David Alexander esteemed him highly as a Christian gentleman. Sister Louise says I enjoy the Highway very much, and Jesus is very precious to me. May the dear Lord comfort her heart in this time of bereavement.—H. S. D.

I always find our paper good devotional reading, and wish it every success.

Yours in the Lord,
HELEN E. GOODSPEED.

We enjoy reading the Highway, it has been coming to us nearly 40 years. We would miss this paper if we dropped it. We read it and pass it along to others. We wish the Highway every success.

MRS. I. O. TRITES.

REVIVAL SERVICES AT MILLVILLE

The Revival Services held recently in Millville, closed Easter Sunday. This was a real good meeting, Bro. Yeattes proved to be a fine evangelist. His preaching was clear and convincing and the Holy Spirit honored the truth. A number of backsliders were reclaimed, and several were sanctified. Two men made the first move for God in their lives. They were not from this community, and we pray they may be led on in the Lord, where ever they go to work or live.

Bro. Yeattes would be a good worker for any of our churches looking for an evangelist.

We had as song evangelist, Bro. Paul Mullen, whose good singing and playing brought many to the services. He was accompanied by Mrs. Mullen and sons Dwight and David.

I am beginning to feel quite like myself again after the siege of "Flu" and "Pneumonia." We were all up to Royalton yesterday to help celebrate my mother's 88th birthday. She is very frail.

We have accepted a call to remain on this field as pastor for another year. Pray for us.

In Him,
J. A. and MRS. OWENS.

BETHANY NOTES

Spring vacation is over and students are back to school again, ready to complete the last lap of the present school year. For some of our staff there has been no vacation. Mr. Dunlop has been assisting Lic. Leslie Hicks in revival services at Bloomfield, and Mr. Cann held services at the Church of the Nazarene in Windsor, where Lic. Douglas Webb is pastor.

During the month of February the college church enjoyed a week's revival meetings with Rev. Roland Stanford, Trenton, N. S. Through these services the church received much spiritual benefit. The ministry of Brother Stanford was much appreciated. Another recent guest speaker at the college was the Nazarene Superintendent of the Maritime District, Rev. J. H. McGregor.

The newly-organized Yarmouth Reformed Baptist Church entertained the March Quarterly of District No. 4. A large delegation from the various churches of the district was present at each of the services. The Sandford and Port Maitland churches generously assisted in the entertaining.

Work on our enlarged library is being completed. The library will adequately accommodate about five thousand volumes. Through the donations of friends in Moncton, Truro and Yarmouth approximately one hundred books have been added to our school library. The Millville Young Peoples' Society recently has made possible the purchase of a new six-volume set of Robertson's "Word Pictures in the New Testament," an excellent commentary on the Greek New Testament.

Several personal gifts have made possible the painting of the dining room—ceiling, walls and floor. New curtains for the dining room were given by the women of the Port Maitland Church. Our sincere thanks go to you who have given and worked without remuneration to make these improvements.

YOU MIGHT TRY THIS

Many of the churches send to the Editor's desk their church bulletin. This is greatly appreciated, and I would take this method of expressing my personal thanks to each one.

New ideas are constantly appearing which are challenging and should bear fruit in the work of the Church. A new idea came this week from the wide-awake Hayworth Memorial Church at High Point, N. C. It is passed on as a suggestion for other Sunday Schools.

On the back of the lesson leaflet, as you know, it is blank, was printed, in an attractive manner the following:

We are glad to have you in Sunday School today.

We invite you to come again.

If you are not a member of some other Sunday school we would like to have you join one of our classes.

If you are already a member, let's unite our efforts in bringing others into the Sunday school.

Mr. H. T. Troxler, Superintendent
Mr. Lewis Vuncannon, Secretary

I have often wondered what use could be made of that blank page on the Sunday school lesson leaflet. This may be the answer.—Sel.

Losses and crosses are heavy to bear, but when our hearts are right with God, it is wonderful how easy the yoke becomes.

—Spurgeon.
