MINUTES FUND

REV. S. G. HILYARD

Rev. S. G. Hilyard and the people of the Belvedere and Crystal Churches held special services in the Belvedere Church, April 16th to April 29th. We were assisted by our Superintendent, Brother B. C. Cochrane, and his wife. The interest was good with good attendance throughout.

We appreciate the labours of Brother and Sister Cochrane as he preached the Word and they sang the Songs of Zion. The meeting was very profitable to the churches and we praise the Lord for the victory that the seekers found at the altar. Their testimony along with those saved last fall are a great blessing to the services.

We expect to hold a baptism Sunday, June 17th.

Brother and Sister LaBelle have moved to Patten to be near his work. We appreciate their presence in the services and their testimony.

NOTICE

1010 Ave. de Coulonges, Quebec, P. Q., June 28, 1951.

Rev. H. S. Dow, Rev. B. C. Cochrane, Dear Sirs,

You have probably heard that my mother has been in the hospital for almost a month with a broken back. With the removal of the cast, we are faced with some provision for her return home within one or two weeks.

It has occurred to me that either through the Highway or through Beulah Camp, it might be possible for you to find a woman who would be willing to come to Quebec at the rate of pay prevailing in N. B. The local rate is about $20-$35 with room and board. Any such person would find pleasant work in comfortable surroundings.

When a suitable person is found, kindly have them communicate with me at once by post or night letter.

Yours truly, KARL KEIRSTEAD,

SINGING IN THE DARK

In the night of our affliction There is triumph in the song That the Spirit sings within us— In our weakness he is strong; And the devil flees before us, For he cannot stand the joy Of a song that's sung at midnight, As the Lord our tongues employ.

In the night of our affliction, How his love upon us beams; And he sheds a glory o'er us This old world has never seen. Then the devil packs his troubles, For he cannot stand the peace Of a heart that's still at midnight, E'er the Father sends relief.

In the night of our affliction, How he sups with you and me! And the music goes before us, Clear and strong, to set us free. For the devil cannot stand it— All his plans have gone astray— If we sing a song that triumphs In the midnight of our day.
