

MINISTERS AND CHURCHES

Will all our pastors please call the attention of their churches to our request made to all subscribers to the King's Highway who are in arrears to the effect that they send in their renewals before June 15. Thanks.

Rev. H. O. McGeorge has decided to remain with the church at Presque Isle another year.

We hear that Rev. H. S. Mullen has accepted a call from our church at Truro, N. S., as pastor for next year.

Rev. H. E. Mullen remains at Fredericton another year.

Rev. G. R. Symonds and Rev. B. C. Cochran organized a Reformed Baptist church at Landsdown, Carleton Co., N. B., recently.

The last report we had is, the following preachers are still available as pastors if any churches need one: Rev. F. A. Dunlop, Rev. E. R. Watson, Rev. Geo. Sanders, Rev. B. D. Price, Lic. James MacArthur, Lic. Scott Ingersoll, Rev. R. Benson, Lic. Emery Cann.

We were very sorry to hear of the sudden passing of our good brother, Warren Smith, of Durham Bridge quite recently. He was a good man and will be greatly missed in the church as well as in his home. The King's Highway extends sincere Christian sympathy to the bereaved family.

Rev. Fernley baptized 10 people and took 11 into church membership Sunday, May 6th.

Rev. E. W. Tokley preached the Baccalaureate sermon at Bethany Bible College on Sunday, June 3rd.

Lic. Wilfred Green supplies the Church at Moncton in Rev. Tokley's absence on Sunday, June 3rd.

NOTICE

The Quarterly Meeting of District No. 5 will convene with the Church at Royalton, N. B. June 7th-10th.

A good delegation expected.

MRS. LESLIE HICKS,
Secretary.

COUNSEL FOR '51

Dr. Herbert Lamson, Boston University marriage counsellor, offers these New Year's resolutions for married couples:

- Talk about your difficulties; don't clam up.
- Be affectionate.
- Go out once a week or have friends in.
- Don't expect your mate to be as enthusiastic over your friends as you are.
- Don't try to dominate your mate.
- Avoid constant nagging on one subject.
- Stress things you agree on; minimize differences.
- Be willing to modify irritating habits.
- Expect relative, not absolute, happiness.
- Don't take irritations out on your mate.
- Remember birthdays and anniversaries.
- Give public and private compliments to your husband or wife.—Pathfinder.

MOTHERS WHO MADE HISTORY

The mother of George Washington taught her son the Biblical ideals of political and social morality which Washington kept before the nation throughout his life. Family prayers were held twice a day with regular readings from the scripture.

Mother of Ferdinand Foch, the great general of World War I, taught him to put his faith in God and to pray. As a result his men said of him, "General Foch is a man of prayer, a prophet whom God inspires." Throughout his life he continued the prayer habits learned in his mother's home.

James A. Garfield's mother was an earnest Christian who taught her children that "the fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom." A widow with four children, she not only managed her farm, but built with her own hands a log house which was also used as a church. There she taught her own children as well as others the scriptures.

The mother of England's famous William E. Gladstone led her son to faith in God when he was nine. He chose as his life motto: "In practice, the great thing is that the life of God may be the supreme habit of my soul." He also wrote, "All I think, all I write, all I am is based on the divinity of Jesus Christ, the central hope of our poor wayward race."

Oliver Cromwell's mother taught him the simple truths of scripture, and he chose as his favorite verse, "I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me."

Mother of Dwight L. Moody struggled against poverty in a New England farm. A widow with many problems, she taught her son the importance of eternal values. At 17 Moody accepted Christ and a few years later dedicated his life for service.

The mother of William Penn so impressed him with the importance of faith in Christ that he took as his life text, "This is the victory, even our faith which overcometh the world."

The late Queen Alexandria asked her son, King George V of England, to read a chapter of the Bible every day. He kept the promise for 55 years.

Sir Isaac Newton's mother prayed with and for her son every day of her life. It was the grief of her deathbed that she left a son of seven years at the mercy of a rough world. But Newton said, "I was born in a home of godliness and dedicated to God in my infancy."

NOT FOR TRIFLING

No time for trifling in this life of mine; not this the path the blessed Master trod, but strenuous toil, each hour and power employed always and all for God.

Time swiftly dies, eternity is near, and soon my dust may lie beneath the sod, how dare I waste my life or cease to be always and all for God?

I catch the meaning of this solemn age; with life's vast issues all my soul is awed, life was not given for trifling, it must be always and all for God.
