BLACK'S HARBOUR, N. B.

Dear Highway Friends:

More than a year has slipped by since our last letter to The Highway, during which time God has done some great things for us whereof we are glad. Revival meetings have yielded fruit, as well as our ordinary services. We have found the presence of God just as real in the usual services of the church as during the time of revival efforts. God has come our hearts to bless, He gives us comfort and sweet rest.

Some of our people have moved to distant places, others have left us for studies at Bethany, but we are glad to report that the faithful members and friends of the church here have stood behind us in every possible way. Love-offerings and gifts at various intervals through the year have all made us to realize that the church group really have their pastor and family at heart.

We appreciate ministering in this community. We are looking forward to another year of progress in this part of the work of the Kingdom as we labour here for another year.

As a church we are glad to report our Budget paid in full for this church year.

BETHANY ACKNOWLEDGMENT

We wish to gratefully acknowledge the gift of money and useful articles for the College. The response of our people to this project exemplifies the great spirit of generosity prevalent in our ranks. Ample supplies of pot holders and dish towels have been received, but quilts are still on the needy list. Thank you for your kindness in this regard.

DOROTHY E. TRAFTON,
Dean of Women.

MINISTER'S ANNOUNCEMENTS

The following ministers are available for pastoral work in the coming church year and are open for a call:

- Rev. Lawson Saunders, Havelock, N. B.
- Lic. Emery C. Cann, R. R. No. 2, South Ohio, Yar. Co., N. S.
- Rev. Enos Cann, Londonderry, N. S.
- Rev. H. E. Anderson, Meductic, N. B.
- Rev. Ralph L. Sabine has resigned as pastor of the North Head Church and has accepted a call to become pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, Springhill, N. S.

WE ARE SORRY

We are sorry that the last few lines of the article, "ATTENTION ALL PASTORS," on the back page of the last issue of The Highway were not printed. It was written by Miss Ruth Harding. The part omitted reads: Please write either Miss Eileen Flanders, Mrs. J. A. Moses, or Miss Ruth Harding.—Editor.

QUARTERLY REPORT OF DISTRICT NO. 3

The Quarterly meeting of District No. 3 convened at North Head, Grand Manan, March 20—23. All were graciously received and entertained by the local church and host pastor, Rev. R. L. Sabine. The opening message was delivered by Rev. R. T. Sabine, with the speakers of the Quarterly as follows: Rev. W. L. Fernley, Rev. J. A. Moses, Rev. G. B. Bridgeo, Rev. W. L. Fernley and Rev. R. T. Sabine. As a district, we missed Rev. H. R. Ingersoll and Rev. R. H. Parks, who were unable to attend because of evangelistic efforts being carried out in their respective fields. The Quarterly was a blessing and inspiration to all who attended, with Holy Ghost anointed preaching. Our Quarterlies are times of refreshing for the soul.

The next Quarterly is to be held at Black's Harbour early in June. The date will be announced later.

Respectfully submitted,
JOSEPH A. MOSES,
Secretary.

NOTICE TO D.V.B.S. WORKERS AND PASTORS

YOUNG PEOPLE:

Planning to work in D.V.B.S. work this summer? Have you any open dates?

PASTORS:

Planning to run a D.V.B.S. in your church? Do you need help?

We will publish a list of available D.V.B.S. workers in a forthcoming Highway. It will be up to the pastors to make their own contacts.

If you need help in planning your school, I will be glad to be of assistance to you.

MRS. J. A. MOSES,
Chairman of Children's Committee,
Box No. 179, Old Town, Maine.

MY NAME IS DOUBT

I walk the earth with soundless steps. I steal in unaware. I speak in whispers. I make people afraid.

I paralyze the strong arm of business and blur the clear vision of the seer.

I enter the house of God and, using the preacher's voice, I speak words which dim the lamp of hope.

I cause good friends to eye each other askance and listen furtively at closed doors.

I creep in as the companion of sorrow and pain, persuading the soul to distrust the safest moorings.

I give to the voice of truth an uncertain sound, and cause those who dwell in the temple of faith to distrust its foundations.

I visit newmade graves and make those who have just said good-bye to departed loved ones to feel that a better day will never dawn.

I have two sisters who go about clothed in the garb of night.

The name of one is Despair; the other's name is Unbelief.

They never smile. I always go before them—they never advance until I beckon.

I am the supreme wrecker of precious things. My name is Doubt.—Herald of Life.

IN GOD'S SCHOOL

Many a time we are prone to interpret God's silence a denial of our petitions. Whereas, in truth, He only defers their fulfilment until such time as we ourselves are ready to cooperate to the full His purposes. Prayer registered in Heaven is prayer dealt with, although the vision tarries. Faith is trained to its supreme mission under the discipline of patience.

Dr. Stuart Holden

OBITUARY

Irvin O. Trites

The entire community surrounding Moncton mourns the passing of our devout Christian brother, Irvin O. Trites. He was born in Lutes Mountain near Moncton, N. B. in 1881 and left to be with Jesus February 11, 1952 after a brief illness following a stroke. He was a son of the late Rowland and Maria (Lutes) Trites, one of a family of 13 children. In 1908 he married Emily Ann Parrott, who with four daughters and two sons still lives in New Brunswick. Also surviving are one brother, two sisters, and eleven grandchildren.

Early in life he was converted and served in the Reformed Baptist Church for 42 years before the Church of the Nazarene was organized in Moncton. He was responsible for continuing Sunday School for many years in the Reformed Baptist Church when they were without a local pastor. He has been a member of the Lutes Mountain Church of the Nazarene since its organization in 1948, and served more than three years as Sunday School Superintendent and Church treasurer, as well as trustee and Bible Class teacher.

Funeral service was conducted by Rev. R. T. Albertson, pastor of the Lutes Mountain Church and the funeral address was by Rev. J. H. MacGregor, District Superintendent of the Maritime District.

The family gave a beautiful pulpit Bible and lamp in memory of the late Mr. Trites.
