Miss Jean Doyle

Mr. Money, formerly a member of the English Parliament, had lived for some time in India, and visited the Mahratta country for the benefit of the health of his family, which had suffered at Bombay. One day, as his little girl, not yet three years of age, was walking through a grove with a native servant, they came near an ancient and deserted temple. The man, leaving the child, stepped aside and worshipped a stone idol that was seated at the door of the abandoned temple.

When he returned, the child, who had watched him, asked:

"Sammy, what for you do that?"

"O Missy," said he, "that my god!"

"Your god!" replied the little girl. "Why your god is a stone; your god no can see, no can hear, no can move! My God see everything. He make me, make you, make everything!"

During the four months in which the family remained in that part, Sammy never failed to retire to the temple, and the child never failed to reprove him for his idolatry. Yet he became very fond of her; and when he thought she was going back to England, he said to her:

'What will poor Sammy do when Missy go to England? Sammy have no father, no mother."

She instantly replied, "O Sammy, if you will love my God, He will be your father and mother, too."

Then she said, "You must learn my prayers" and she taught him the Lord's Prayer; the Apostles' Creed, and her morning and evening prayers.

One morning when the family was assembled at family worship, Sammy, of his own accord, quite unexpectedly went into the room, took his turban off his head, laid it on the floor, kneeled down, and repeated the Lord's Prayer after Mr. Money. From that time there was a very striking change in his whole conduct, and especially in his great carefulness never to tell an untruth. He became anxious to learn to read, that he might read the Bible; and in a little while he accomplished this task. Thus was the poor heathen servant converted from his degrading idolatry by the instrumentality of a Christian child.— Selected.

AN ACKNOWLEDGMENT

To the many kind friends who have remembered us with cards and letters during our bereavement, I wish to express sincere appreciation. While our sorrow is deep and we sense the loss of our dear one very keenly, the prayerful support and sympathy of our friends have been a real source of comfort to us.

He giveth more grace.

Yours in Him, HILDA M. COCHRANE

F. A. WATSON, Treasurer.

Another one has gone, another chair is vacant, another home is bereaved. Miss Jean Doyle, our R. N., a beloved daughter, a wonderful nurse, assistant pianist at the Reformed Baptist Church, passed away on Monday, January 21st, at Truro, N. S.

She will be missed in her home, profession and church. She was forty-three years old.

She leaves to mourn her going, her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Doyle of Truro, N. S.; one sister, Mrs. B. C. Cochrane of Fredericton, N. B.; three brothers, Frank of Truro, N. S., John of Halifax, N. S., and Raymond of Yukon Territory.

The funeral was very large, and the floral tributes were many and beautiful, showing the high esteem in which she was held. The service was conducted by the writer, assisted by Rev. N. E. Trafton, B.A., who brought the message, and Evangelist Fred Strickland who offered prayer. The choir of the Reformed Baptist Church sang "Rock of Ages" and "No one ever cared for me like Jesus," and Miss Purdy sang "No Night There."

Let us remember that she has just gone on a little ahead of us. Let us prepare for our going.

Deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved hearts.

H. S. MULLEN.

Benson, Rev. A. Brooks and Rev. G. Ballington. The Millville choir sang, "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," "Sweetly Resting," and "Beyond the Sunset." Besides her husband she leaves to mourn, two sons, two daughters, two sisters and many others who regret her passing. The floral tributes were beautiful. She was laid to rest in the cemetery near the church.
