

IN SAFE HANDS

Let us give up our work, our thoughts, our plans, ourselves, our lives, our loved ones, our influence, our all, right into God's hand; and there will be nothing left for us to trouble about, or to make trouble about. When all is in His hand, all will be safe, all will be wisely dealt with, all will be done and well done. "He led them on safely."—Dr. J. Hudson Taylor.

THE MORNING PRAYER

He who rushes from his bed to his business and waiteth not to worship is as foolish as though he dashed into battle without arms or armour. Be it ours to bathe in the softly flowing river of communion with God, before the heat of the wilderness and the burden of the way begin to oppress us.—C. H. Spurgeon.

"When you cannot walk the faith road, or find it, then take the obedience road, for it will ultimately lead to faith! . . . Believe if you can, and if you cannot, then obey and you will soon be able to believe!"—Paul Hutchens in THE LAST FIRST (Erdmans).

Hard places help us to know the resources of God. It is only under difficult circumstances that we know His all sufficiency . . . God can only become real to us up to the measure of our actual needs, and every difficult situation is just a vessel for Him to fill, and an occasion for Him to show Himself in His infinite wisdom, power and grace.—A. B. Simpson in The Gospel Call.

SINNING AGAINST THE HOLY GHOST

"Ye do always resist the Holy Ghost." The sinner resists Him when he tries to shake off religious impressions and escape conviction of sin, or procrastinate decision for Christ. He may do it very politely and intend at some "convenient season" to take up the matter again; but all the same the Holy Spirit recognizes it as rejection, refusal, and insult. Therefore, we read, "Wherefore, as the Holy Ghost saith, Today if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts."

It is possible to do this by an imperceptible process as when a piece of iron is heated and cooled again and again until it corrodes and falls to pieces; the temper has been burned out of it, and there is nothing left but dross. Gad says of some souls, "Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the Lord hath rejected them." We never can tell when for the last time we are saying No to God and He is giving us the final invitation. Just because the Spirit is so gentle, patient, long-suffering and forgetful of His own honour and glory, therefore God has said, "Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace?"

Payson of Portland once said to a young friend who had come to speak to him about a slight religious impression that he had begun to feel, "A little cord has dropped from heaven, and for a moment touched your shoulder. It

WITHOUT ME—NOTHING

Th one purpose of our life should be to remain in living and intense union with Christ, guarding against everything that would break it, employing every means of cementing and enlarging it. And just in proportion as we do so, we shall find His strength flowing into us for every possible emergency, in spite of what we feel or fear.—Dr. B. F. Meyer.

OUR ONE CARE

We need only have one care, that we put the first thing first—faithfulness to God. Then all else we need for both worlds will be supplied. It will not always be easy. Tomorrow it may mean a distasteful task, a disagreeable duty, a costly sacrifice. Life is full of sore testings of our willingness to follow the Good Shepherd.—Dr. J. R. Miller.

GOD'S LEADING

Cattle are yoked where the yoke is used for service. This is a surrender, not for idleness, but for service. Jesus has every life planned. He has a plan for the whole world. He has a plan for each boy and girl and each one. And the highest level in life ever is this, to find God's plan and to fit into it, with a surrendered will.

is so fine that you can scarcely feel it. Dear friend, grasp it quickly, for it is fastened to the throne of God and perhaps for you the last strand of saving grace."—Bright Words.
