

PERSONAL EVANGELISM

The way to reach the masses is to reach the man. All Christians agree, in the time-honoured statement regarding spiritual work, that hand-picked fruit is the best. And yet this is often the very point of weakness. There are so many who honestly acknowledge that point of weakness. There are so many who honestly acknowledge that they do not know how to seek the individual for Christ. Speaking at meetings or in Bible Classes is comparatively simple compared with doing personal work.

We find, in the earliest records of the progress of the Kingdom of God, that it was this work among individuals that counted largely. Of no less than seven of the twelve disciples it is told that they were brought to Christ individually, and the probability is that the others had similar experiences. Timothy, the Philippian jailor, the woman of Samaria, Nicodemus, and in fact almost all the conversions recorded in the New Testament were the result of individual effort.

The sermon has its place in the work of the Church, the Bible Class, the Young People's meeting, and the Prayer Meeting. The importance of public teaching and preaching cannot be overestimated, but where the bulk of Christians fail, miserably fail, is in leading others to Christ.

There are many who would gladly learn how this great and important work can be done. Then, why should we not learn? We have classes for Missionary Study, so why not have classes for the study of this most vital of all matters? If we are to fulfil the Lord's command given in Acts 1:8, and to be witnesses unto Him, the sooner we commence the better.

The best way to begin this work is to begin; the best way to begin is now. The only mistake we need really fear is the mistake of holding off.—Selected.

NEW CHURCH TO BE DEDICATED

The dedication of the new Reformed Baptist Church at Glassville, N. B., will be held on Sunday, October 12th. A great service is planned with Rev. B. C. Cochran, the superintendent preaching the dedicatory sermon.

"Are we obtaining all that is available to us through prayer?"

"The Gospel moves with slow and timid pace when the saints are not at their prayers early and late."

OBEDIENCE TO THE LIGHT

obedient you cannot have confidence. I challenge any Christian here to tell me he can go up to the throne of God in faith for any blessing, when his own heart condemns him. He knows he cannot. HE HAS FIRST TO GET THAT STATE OF CONDEMNATION TAKEN AWAY before he can exercise faith for any blessing. Walk in the light, and then you shall have fellowship with Him, and His blood will cleanse you from all sin, and the Spirit will teach you how to pray, and what to pray for, which the great mass of professors know nothing about.
