THE DENOMINATIONAL RALLY

Dear Young People:

Many have asked me about our Denominational Rally for this spring, therefore, I feel that it is a question arising in most of our minds.

The purpose of our rally is that we might be led deeper in spiritual things. Have you been faced with spiritual problems? been severely tested? or tried? If so then come to the rally and let God solve the problems, enjoy Christian fellowship and have your soul refreshed.

Much prayer and planning is being done by the various committees that this rally will truly be blessed of God. If you are planning to attend please notify:

Miss Helen White,
Marysville, N. B.

However, if you at the last minute decide to come—then come anyway because plans are being made to entertain you too.

The theme of our rally this year is to be "MISSIONS." Our speaker, Rev. Rolland Rice, is truly a man of God. He has served as a missionary in both China and Japan. He will be showing pictures of his work as well as preaching to us.

Pray much for the rally, and be sure to keep May 21-24 reserved for this special time of fellowship in the Lord.

Yours in Him,
MILTON BAGLEY, Pres.

GREAT SINS AGAINST YOUTH

Bill Mills, converted prison convict who spent twenty-five years behind prison walls, says that in interviews with youngsters in reform schools, they charge the movies and the dance with being the cause of their downfall. Eighty out of one hundred girls said that dancing was the beginning of their lives of evil.—Herald of Holiness.

THE CONQUEROR

It's easy to laugh when the skies are blue
And the sun is shining bright;
Yes, easy to laugh when your friends are true
And there's happiness in sight;
But when hope has fled and the skies are gray,
And the friends of the past have turned away,
Ah, then, indeed, it's a hero's feat
To conjure a smile in the face of defeat.

It's easy to laugh when the storm is o'er
And your ship is safe in port;
Yes, easy to laugh when you're on the shore
Secure from the tempest's sport;
But when wild waves wash o'er the storm-swept deck

And your gallant ship is a battered wreck,
Ah, that is the time when it's well worth while
To look in the face of defeat with a smile.

It's easy to laugh when the battle's fought
And you know that the victory's won;
Yes, easy to laugh when the prize you sought
Is yours when the race is run;
But here's to the man who can laugh when the blast

Of adversity blows; he will conquer at last,
For the hardest man in the world to beat
Is the man who can laugh in the face of defeat.

OLD TOWN, MAINE

Dear Young People:

We have been so much encouraged with the progress of our Young People's Society in Old Town during this past year that we felt that you would want to share with us some of our good news. For several weeks now our attendance has been nearly thirty. This, we feel, is a remarkable increase for us since our last year's attendance averaged only five. Of course, much of this increase is due to the fact that we have lowered our age limit to nine years since many of the contacts made by our Sunday School were of this age group. We also have a comparable group of junior High and High School young people and some who are older.

Since our entire church program has been a mission effort, many of our young people have never previously been within a definite church influence. Despite the fact that much is new to them, they are learning readily and enthusiastically to take part in their meetings. Bringing a Bible to young people's service has become almost imperative. Some have saved that they might purchase their own.

Our meetings have been varied with an effort to include each young person during the service. In all, the emphasis has been upon the salvation and spiritual development of the young people of the church. At present, eight of our young people are anticipating baptism. We are praising the Lord for all that has been accomplished and for so wondrously answering our prayer. We feel that with His help many more young people will be reached for His kingdom in our area; that is only the beginning.

Sincerely in Christ,
STORER EMMETT,
Old Town R. B. Y. S.
