CHURCH AT SUSSEX ORGANIZED

On November 11th a very impressive service was witnessed by an interested audience when the Reformed Baptist Church of Sussex was organized.

The service was held on the regular prayer meeting night at the parsonage. Ministers present were the Superintendent, Rev. B. C. Cochrane; Rev. G. R. Symonds, of Marysville; Rev. A. L. Stairs, of Millstream; and Rev. R. H. Nicholson, pastor of the Sussex Church. Rev. A. L. Stairs presented the Bible as the rule of faith and practice. Rev. G. R. Symonds read the Church Covenant and spoke a few words of appreciation, and Rev. R. H. Nicholson extended the right hand of fellowship. "Blessed be the Tie that Binds" was heartily sung by all present.

Rev. B. C. Cochrane offered the prayer of consecration and delivered an inspirational and challenging message. "Holiness Unto the Lord" was sung and Rev. G. R. Symonds pronounced the benediction.

We appreciate the courage and faith possessed by these seventeen Charter Members who comprise the new Reformed Baptist Church at Sussex. They face the colossal task of erecting a church building as well as the regular expense. However, their conviction is that it is God's will to have a holiness work established in this fine dairy town, and they believe that with the support of others who have the same conviction, God will fulfill His purpose. May God bless the new church.

HAVELOCK, N. S.

Greetings in the Master's Name. Since coming to pastor the church here at Havelock we have enjoyed the fellowship and kindnesses of this loyal group of people that God has given us to work with.

We are enjoying His wonderful presence with us in a very real way. We have just closed a revival campaign with Brother Hartley Mullen as the evangelist, and Paul Mullen as song evangelist. Brother Mullen preached with the anointing of God upon him, bringing wonderful messages. Brother Paul's singing was much appreciated and brought much added blessing to the services. We had an overflow crowd at times and were unable to accommodate all who came, all available room being taken with extra chairs and benches, and others standing. Best of all, God was with us, and, as a result, many precious souls found Jesus as Saviour and Sanctifier.

We are looking forward to the future with confidence.

Yours in Christian love,

D. C. and Mrs. Webb

The King's Highway

MILLVILLE, N. B.

Dear Highway:

May we have a little space to report our fall meetings?

From Aug. 18th to 30th inclusive Rev. H. S. Dow was with us for a meeting at Maple Ridge. Brother Vallis Warden was song leader and soloist. It was a very profitable meeting. Brother Dow never preached better, and the people appreciated the good messages and singing. We are sorry to report there were no seekers, but we know the results of these meetings are still going on in the hearts of the people. The interest in church work at Maple Ridge is very encouraging indeed.

On September 15th, Brother Ronald Morehouse came with us for a revival effort at Lower Hainsville. His ministry was enjoyed by all, and on the closing night, the 29th, three backsliders were reclaimed. Since then, the pastor and the faithful few have put their church in real good shape for winter by putting insul-board on the inner walls over the old plaster, and both walls and ceiling have been given a coat of snowy white. The church entry has also been finished, making it more presentable. God is blessing, one soul was saved recently in her own home, and her testimony is a blessing.

Brother Clifford Filer was our evangelist at Millville from Oct. 21 to Nov. 8. The people of the community gave our brother a good hearing, and the church was greatly edified and benefitted by the definite holiness messages. We also enjoyed Brother Herbert McCrea's ministry of song. He and Sister McCrea were a real blessing to us. A number of seekers were forward to be sanctified, and one young lady was saved in the closing service of the youth rally, Nov. 8th. We appreciated the fine group of young people who attended the rally, and enjoyed their fine singing and musical talent.

Our Superintendent was with us a few nights and one week-end at Central Hainsville. Our brother's plain, clear cut holiness messages were greatly appreciated by all who heard them. The closing afternoon and evening saw the little church filled to capacity and deep conviction was on the services. Although only one hand was raised for prayer, much good was received from the preached word and the little band was strengthened.

We have enjoyed working with these dear people on this circuit; they have stood by us faithfully during these many weeks of special services.

As we approach the blessed Christmas Season we wish to take this opportunity of wishing The Highway Family and the Editor a Very Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year.

Yours in Him,

J. A. and Mrs. Owens

GIVE YOURSELF A BURDEN OF PRAYER

"I cannot pray because the Lord has not given me a burden," someone says. But Jesus says, "Pray always." So there is something wrong with us if we do not have a spirit of prayer.

Jesus never tells us to do impossible things. He tells us to "Look on the fields . . . white . . . to harvest." Certainly we can do that. We can look at the awful conditions in the church and in the world. In Luke 10:2 the Lord says, "The harvest . . . is great . . . PRAY."

The Church of God needs a revival. Are we going to sit around "at ease in Zion" waiting for God to do for us what He has told us to do? God forbid! Suppose Jacob had waited for God to give him some peculiar feeling before he got desperate in prayer as Esau came towards him. In Genesis 32 we see that Jacob put the promises of God alongside his own need of help—and the Lord mightily undertook for him.

God tells us to ask. When Nehemiah heard of the desolation of Jerusalem he went to God in prayer about it. He loved God's cause and he fasted and prayed until God answered.

Oh, let us GIVE OURSELVES to prayer as did the disciples.—W. C. Moore.

An evangelist is not to go to a field and reap the harvest for a church while they look on and watch him do it, but he is to lead, instruct, and direct the harvesters as they go out into the field and gather in the harvest themselves.—Conant, Every-Member Evangelism.
