

Church and District News

FROM REV. AND MRS. L. SAUNDERS

Dear Highway Friends:

It's time we shared our joy with you in praise to the great, heavenly Father we are serving. Mrs. Saunders is well again after a successful operation in July. We had an excellent doctor-surgeon, who presented no bill because we are in the ministry. An uncle, who is not a Christian, minded God, however, and paid our hospital expenses. How it thrilled our hearts to see how God provided. Praise His Wonderful Name!

At our November Rally we had a record attendance and in the morning service, Mr. Saunders had the privilege of dedicating eight children to God.

Our Missionary Rally, the 28th, with Mryra and Charles Sanders, proved a good success with a full church in the evening services.

We are also praising God for a very timely gift of $50.00 to us personally and $100.00 to the church towards a new furnace, from the "Do for Others" Club in the community here.

We just closed a two-week Prayer and Fasting Revival for our coming Evangelistic Meeting Dec. 28-Jan. 9, with Rev. Neale McLain, Fairfield, Me., and Deverne Mullen from the 4th to the 9th. We are believing God for a spiritual deepening of church members and a reaping of lost souls. God is certainly mindful of our little church and we are trusting Him for a real moving of His Spirit in our midst. We are fighting a hard, fierce battle against unconcern and indifference but we have an Almighty God on our side! Please place this wicked community on your prayer list. God is able!

Lawson and Dorothy Saunders

FROM MILLVILLE, N. B.

Dear Highway Friends:

We would like to give a report of our fall meetings. In September Brother and Sister Jack MacKenzie was with us for a twelve day meeting in Lr. Hainsville. Their labours were much appreciated, and although the response was not great, yet we saw some real victories. Three young girls found the Lord as Saviour, and another was gloriously sanctified, and has been a real factor in the work since.

Then in November the MacKenzies came back for three weeks at Central Hainsville, and one week at Lr. Hainsville. During the meetings at Central Hainsville one young lady was reclaimed and a number requested prayer, having seen their need of sanctification. Several families covenanted to erect family altars in their homes.

The week of meetings at Lr. Hainsville was crowned with success from the very first service on Sunday morning. There wasn't a barren altar during the week, and we closed with eleven souls seeking pardon or purity, making twenty-two seekers that last week. We pray that each one will go on steadily with God. We shall do our best to encourage them.

Brother MacKenzie is a real good evangelist, and preaches the truth under the anointing of the Spirit. Their music and singing are enjoyed by all who hear them. We expect to have them again in the spring the Lord willing. I can recommend him fully to any of our churches wanting a Spirit-filled Gospel worker.

Yours for Holiness,

J. A. and Mrs. Owens.

The King's Highway

FROM OLD TOWN, ME.

Dear Highway Readers:

We wish to report from the work at Old Town. Since last writing there has been a steady increase in attendance in all phases of the work: Sunday School, young people's services, prayer meetings and missionary meetings.

We were privileged to have Rev. H. R. Ingersoll and DeVerne Mullen with us for a revival campaign. It was a very profitable meeting. A good number were at the altar, and people are still talking about the meeting. We believe it was the turning point for good in the lives of people.

We are planning a great watchnight service to begin at 8.30, and we are believing God for victories in the future. Remember us in prayer.

Wishing you all a very happy Christmas and a prosperous New Year.

Yours in His love,

H. O. McGeorge.

JUDSON SANDERS ACCOMPANIES REV. A. MARKS

Judson Sanders has returned home from a trip in the Maritimes with Rev Alexander Marks, Blind Evangelist for the American Board of Missions to the Jews. During this time, from Sept. 3 to Oct. 20, the places visited were: Clarks Harbour, Yarmouth, Bear River, Lockport, Truro, New Glasgow, Sydney, Halifax, in Nova Scotia, and Chipman, Saint John, Hartland, Victoria Corner and Campbellton, in New Brunswick. Judson said goodbye to Mr. Marks at Victoria Corner, who then proceeded to Campbellton, and then to Montreal and New York. Fine meetings were enjoyed, and there were good crowds. Parts of this trip were through very beautiful scenery, at a very lovely time of year, and the nearly completed Canso Causeway and Halifax-Dartmouth Bridge were observed with interest.

ANOTHER APPEAL FOR BETHANY

We understand that Bethany Bible College is urgently in need of budget payments. With half of the church year gone less than a quarter of the year's budget has been sent in by the churches. The result is unpaid workers and unpaid bills. Pastors and friends, we can help remedy this embarrassing situation. Let us send something to Bethany immediately to help lift this burden. "God loveth a cheerful giver." Let us cheerfully give to Bethany in time for Christmas. —E. W. T.

We know what we ought to do with Jesus Christ. We ought to crown Him King in our lives, in our home, in all that we are and do. It is the place of supremacy that belongs to Him who loved us and gave himself for us.—Wm. T. McElroy.

"Praise smooths the way to Heaven, and opens the pearly gates to one eternal Thanksgiving Day."

"He who does not desire the highest state of grace does not desire any."
