Retrospect

Another church year has been completed and the story of another year of youth work has been written. Let's look back for a moment on both our local and denominational endeavours.

Your Highway reports have told a story of God's blessing. Today I recall many of the reports in particular. Things have been happening in many societies. You have not been satisfied with the "status quo." (Someone has said that "status quo" is Latin for "the mess we are in.") You have given the old society a "shot in the arm." You have done something to boost attendance. Some of you have even dared to change the routine of your services and have two opening numbers rather than three as you always used to have! You have devoted more time to planning and prayer in preparation for your services. You have seen the results, too.

The over-all picture has been inspiring as well. Think of the number of societies organized or re-organized this year—Killams Mills, Crystal, Perth, Lower Brighton, and all the ones I can't remember. This year appears to have been one of the best in the growth of our young people's work.

As your editor I have appreciated your co-operation in sending in reports and articles. I have also appreciated your interest in the page.

May the gains of the past year be an incentive to new accomplishments in the coming year. There are yet many frontiers in our youth work.—C. E. S.

A REPORT FROM MILLVILLE

We feel that a letter from our society would be in order at this time.

The blessing of the Lord has been felt on our souls, and we are rejoicing in the fact that we have chosen Christ as our leader in our lives.

Those of us who were privileged to attend the Denominational Rally at Hartland felt it was a time of spiritual uplift and blessing, and the messages of the evangelist were heart searching.

We would take this opportunity as a society to express our thanks to the Hartland Y. P. Society and all those who had any part in entertaining us and making our stay at the rally enjoyable.

Also our congratulations to the Presque Isle Young People's Society on the winning of the banner.

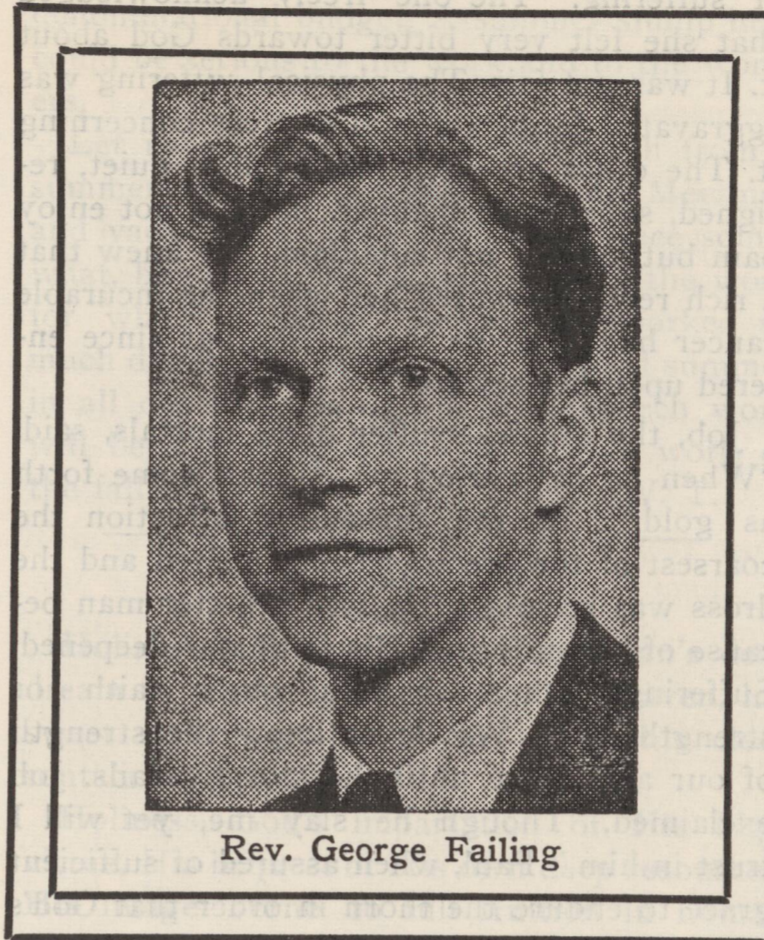

Many young people are looking forward to graduating from various schools of learning at this time. May as you launch out into life ever make Christ your leader in all things.

Let us as Christian young people hold the Banner of Holiness high while we live on this earth.

THE RALLY, A TIME OF GREAT BLESSING

Another annual rally has passed into history. The general feeling seems to be that each year they are better and better. Without doubt, the effect of this rally will be long-lasting and far-reaching. The sincere and adequate way in which our evangelist, Rev. F. A. Dunlop, dealt with the theme "Holiness For Youth" causes us to feel that great good has been accomplished.

THE THEME:

"HOLINESS FOR YOUTH" seemed to be a very fitting theme for this rally. Rev. Dunlop adequately dealt with the theme as he preached under the anointing of the Holy Spirit. As he preached one could not help but notice that he carried a burden for Youth, and yearned to see them enjoy the blessed experience of heart holiness.

In the first service the evangelist stressed the fact that Holiness is for youth today. The following evening the doctrine of holiness was explained. Then the experience of holiness was explained. In the Sunday afternoon service he stressed the living (or ethics) of holiness. The closing message was entitled "Love not the World," at which time two knelt at the altar seeking the experience of a pure heart.

ATTENDANCE:

All through the rally attendance was extremely good. There were fifteen societies represented and nearly two hundred registered for at least part of the rally. The church was nearly filled for the very first service, and from then on the numbers steadily increased. Sunday afternoon the church was more than full and many were forced to stand outside. The Lord gave us a beautiful day Sunday which enabled many to come who otherwise would have been deprived of the privilege.

MUSIC:

The co-operation of the youth from our various societies was gratifying indeed. Doug McCallum did a splendid job directing the music for the entire rally. Young people from various churches brought their instruments and we had a very fine orchestra. Don't forget to bring those instruments to Beulah Camp this year.

BUSINESS:

The business session was preceded by a time of worship and praise, which was directed by Storer Emmett of Old Town, Me.

The main topic of discussion in the business session was that we as Holiness Young People should take a definite stand against the following things: 1. Sunday sports. 2. Sale and use of beer and wine in hotels and restaurants. 3. Gambling of every description, which includes lottery tickets.

OUTING:

Saturday afternoon we were shown through the Top Hat Potato Factory. Mr. Hatfield, one of the directors, conducted the tour and gave each of us a bag of freshly made chips. Hats off to Hatfields!

Many of us visited the grounds of the Bible school at Victoria. We also walked across the longest covered bridge in the world.

BANNER:

There were delegates of fifteen societies present with nearly two hundred guests for at least part of the time. The Presque Isle Society had the largest number of representatives and thus won the banner. CONGRATULATIONS to the Presque Isle Society!

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS:

First, we are grateful to God for giving us such a gracious rally.

We also wish to say thank you very much to the host pastor, Rev. F. A. Anderson, to the host society, and to all those who so graciously entertained us during our visit to Hartland.

ANTICIPATION:

We are looking forward to seeing you all at Beulah.

M. W. BAGLEY,
President.
