

HOW A LITTLE INDIAN GIRL GAVE HER HEART TO GOD

Wi-Yu's father and mother were pagans. She never heard a word about Jesus Christ till she came to the Mission Station. One day Wi-Yu walked up to me and said: "I want to give myself away to you." I was much surprised, and looked into the little girl's black eyes, and said: "Why does Wi-Yu wish to give yourself to me?" "Because," she said simply, "I love you." After this they called Wi-Yu my little girl.

One day while Wi-Yu sat by me learning how to hem a pocket handkerchief neatly, I asked her if she loved Jesus, of whom I had been talking to her about. "No," she said, "I do not. I want to be a Christian, but I am too little."

"But Jesus says, 'Suffer the little children to come unto Me.'"

"I don't know how to go to Him; I don't know what to do," said she.

"Wi-Yu," said I, "You must give yourself away to Him."

She looked at me in surprise.

"How did you give yourself to me?"

"I came and asked you to take me because I loved you."

"Why do you love me, dear?"

She hesitated a moment, and then answered: "I think it must be because you love me."

"Yes, Wi-Yu, that is just the reason. Now Jesus has been loving you all this time, while you have not been caring in the least for Him."

"Would Jesus be willing for me to give myself away to Him just as I did you?"

"Certainly, my dear child, that is exactly what He wants you to do. He wants all of you, too."

After some quiet thinking, Wi-Yu knelt by my side and said, "My Jesus, I give myself to you. I give my hands, my feet, my mouth, my tongue, and my heart. I give you all myself. Please take me, dear Jesus."

She arose and said, "Do you think He will take me?"

"I am sure of it," said I, "and you will find His promise in your little Testament."

Together we found these precious words in her Indian Testament: "Anyone that cometh unto Me I will not thrust aside." Believing that Jesus meant just what He said, she from that moment knew that she was His own dear child."—Selected.

ANNOUNCEMENT AND REQUEST

Announcing that we had a wonderful New Year's week-end at Bloomfield. A number were saved and some reclaimed. Mr. L. J. Sears was the speaker, and he will be helping us at Royalton in special meetings, Jan. 16 to Jan. 30.

We request prayer for these services.

In His service,

A. L. Stairs

FROM SALEM AND KILLAMS MILLS

Quite some time has passed by since we last reported to you from Salem and Killams Mills. Although the time has passed quickly it has not been uneventful, and eternity alone will reveal that which "now we see through a glass, darkly."

God has richly blessed us here during the past year, both spiritually and materially.

Last June we saw revival fires burn in our church at Salem. Holy Ghost conviction settled down so mightily that sinners could neither eat nor perform their daily work in a proper way. A goodly number sought and found Christ at that time, and the majority of them are still enjoying victory and the blessing of God in their hearts. Praise His name. Rev. R. T. Sellick was the evangelist during those meetings, and he was most faithful to the Word of God and the souls of men. Brother Sellick was back after Beulah and a number were sanctified and established "unblameable in holiness before God."

During the month of December we had a good meeting at Killams Mills with Rev. G. A. DeLong as evangelist. The visible results that we would like to have seen did not appear, but we feel that much good was done. We believe that God is working at Killams Mills, and that He will hear from Heaven, the intercession of His people. Rev. H. R. Ingersoll is to be with us next June and we pray that God will give us the desire of our hearts.

The people here have given us good support and co-operation, and remembered us in a special way throughout the Christmas season.

We are happy to be in the service of the Lord, and we are pressing toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God.

Yours in Christian love,

Kay and Ron Morehouse

REPORT FROM MONCTON

From Nov. 30—Dec. 12 the Moncton Church was in special services, with Rev. H. R. Ingersoll, evangelist, and Brother DeVerne Mullen, song evangelist. The ministry of both these workers was of the highest order and together they made an excellent team. The attendance throughout was good. On both Sundays chairs had to be used in all services to accommodate the large congregations. And there was fruit. God blessed the labours of His servants, and answered the prayers of those who prayed, so that a number sought the Lord for pardon or purity, and many others testified to help received.

Then, from Dec. 29—Jan. 2 we were privileged to have DeVerne and Paul Mullen with us, blessing and inspiring us with their ministries of sacred music and song. They helped to bring the touch of God upon us during the closing days of the old year, and the beginning of 1955. We felt they excelled in their work.

Another special occasion was the annual Sunday School Christmas programme, presented to a packed church, on Monday, Dec. 27th. The teachers and scholars worked hard to give a splendid programme. At the conclusion, Brother James Bradley, Sunday School superintendent, spoke words of appreciation to the pastor and Mrs. Tokley, and on behalf of the church presented them with a purse of money.

The Moncton Church and pastor send new year greetings to all.

WEDDING

Johnson-Grant—Miss Eppie Laura Grant was united in Holy Matrimony to Mr. Norris L. Johnson, Dec. 30, 1954, at the home of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. W. Bagley. May the Lord richly bless this new home.

FROM MEDUCTIC PASTORATE

No pastor could apply that sentiment more fittingly to his people than can be applied here. For not only has such kindness and love been shown to us but also to our girls and David.

We can but praise God for leading us to this field of labor, where we are happier than we have ever been in our lives. Pray for us that we might be found ever faithful to Him, and worthy of the love and devotion of God and His people.

Yours for the cause of Holiness,

Georgia and Kenneth Jewett.
