

HOW GOD ANSWERED THE CHILDREN'S PRAYER

Well, children, I suppose you have been at home all alone some time or other, haven't you? Maybe some time Mother had to hurry off and leave you — or, perhaps you heard of other children who have been left alone, and you have thought, "Well, I'm glad it's not me, for if I were left alone I might be afraid to stay in a big house and if I were afraid, what would I do?"

Well, I am going to tell you a true story of two little girls, Joyce, aged six, and Mabel, aged three — nice little girls, and both about the same height, though Joyce was about three years the older.

One day they were left all alone in their home. They were upstairs playing with their toys and were having a wonderful time together, when suddenly they heard a noise, and as they listened, they discovered it to be water running in the bathroom. This greatly frightened them, for some months before they remembered that because of a similar experience their mother had a very hard task to keep the water from running downstairs and all through the house.

But the noise continued, and what could they do? Mabel began to cry, and then to scream — but the noise continued. They came downstairs and sat in the parlor, wondering what to do. Then suddenly Joyce thought of a real true Friend—the One about whom many older people forget. She had heard about Jesus in the Sunday school, and of the many great things He had done. So she said to Mabel, "Let's tell Jesus about it!"

Both of the little girls knelt down, and Joyce prayed, "Lord Jesus, help us to get the water stopped." As soon as she had uttered that short prayer a neighbor man, who perhaps heard their frightened cries, came in, went upstairs, and fixed the water-box — and the noise ceased.

Now, my little readers, what do you think of this? Do you think that Jesus did not mean what He said, when He told us to come to Him with ALL of our troubles? He certainly did. Joyce and Mabel proved this, and it makes them happy when they think of the time that Jesus heard and answered their prayer; and Jesus must have been pleased, too, to have these two little girls put their trust in Him.

"What a Friend we have in Jesus,
All our sins and griefs to bear!"

What a privilege to carry
Everything to God in prayer!"
