

Personal Communication

Perhaps a few words from us would not be amiss at this time. Probably some of our good friends do not even know what has become of us. At long last we are comfortably settled at Port Maitland, Nova Scotia. The good folk here have so far given us a warm welcome and we are beginning to feel at home.

Our health has improved, so that both of us are feeling better than we were, and God's blessing is upon us.

Since Beulah Camp we have not been wholly out of the Lord's work, having supplied the church at Sandford for two Sundays and one Sunday at Wood Harbor, besides speaking at several other places. The call of God to preach the Gospel is still upon us, and we expect to do so at every opportunity.

We are open for supply or evangelistic work as the Lord may lead.

May the blessing of God be upon all our good friends among the churches where we have served.

Sincerely,

H. C. & Mrs. Mullen,

Port Maitland, N. S.

Thanks to my many friends who were so considerate during my recent illness. It was certainly a fine demonstration of friendship which we appreciated very much indeed. We must have received well over one hundred very beautiful cards and nearly that many callers, as well as several long distance phone calls. I wished sometimes that my friends had not sent so many cards. They were very nice but I thought the money might have been put to better use. I knew, of course, that they wanted me to know they thought of me, were sorry I was ill and wished me a speedy recovery, but I knew that before they sent all those nice cards, because I have known them long enough to realize they were my friends, always wished me well, and prayed for me to be a blessing in the ministry.

The inspired word says: "A friend loveth at all times". One of the great blessings that we receive in gospel work is the blessing of friendship, friends who love at all times, as the wise man wrote. I suppose we have all met some people who would act friendly at times when it was to their advantage to do so, but were not real friends, did not qualify according to the Word. I heard a lady say while speaking of a near neighbor: "Oh, we are friendly, but we are not friends". They, like many others, lacked that very precious element which the Word calls love, an element so essential to our welfare here and essential for the life to come. That love which came down from heaven in the person of Jesus Christ, caused Him to suffer and die to pay the sinners' debt and set him free. "God so loved, that he gave . . ."

If lost, sinful men and women will repent of sin and yield to Jesus, He will save them, and by His grace change their hearts and lives, cause them to love God and their neighbour, hate sin and wickedness, and impart to them a spirit of friendship which is not fickle like the love of this world, but a love like the love of Jesus which is kind, permanent and helpful at all times, and especially to those who are in need.

Thanks again to all my friends who have prayed for me. I am feeling the effects of

FROM NORTON, N. B.

Dear Highway Friends:

As our first year's work here is quickly drawing to a close, I think a report is due. The Lord has seen fit to bless us in countless way. Through the faithful work of our evangelists, names have been added to the book of life, for which we praise the Lord.

Paul and Deverne Mullen and Rev. Ralph Ingersoll were with us as a team in May, and at that time there were fifteen souls at an altar of prayer. Brothers Stillman Cameron, and Cedric Landers were with us for a Youth Week in Norton and the following week at Mercer Settlement. Although we saw no visible results at that time, since then we have witnessed the fruits of the lasting impressions made on some young hearts. We were glad to see how the Lord is using the musical talents of brother Cedric for his glory. May the Lord richly bless him. Needless to say we appreciated Stillman's services also.

Recently, with the permission of the trustees, we have added a third church at Case Settlement to our circuit, Brother Ralph Ingersoll gave us a long weekend of services there recently, with an average of forty in attendance for which we praise the Lord. The plan to continue to hold services in this place as the Lord directs.

Our Young People's Society is continuing to grow in numbers. There also is an improvement in the spiritual tone for which we are grateful.

With public school holidays over, Sunday School is on the increase again. The faithful ladies at Mercer Settlement carry on the Sunday School work there. We appreciate them greatly for their loyalty to the Lord.

We are all in good health and trusting the Lord for direction for the coming year in His service.

In Christian Love,

Jack S.

WE REQUEST THAT . . .

prayer and believing God is going to restore me fully to my place in His work. Thanks also for gifts of money which have also helped. I should be, and believe will be, a better, stronger, man, because of so many true friends. I am still at Hartland, N. B., with my son Burpee and his good wife, who are giving me excellent care.

God Bless you all, Yours and His,
