

Ministers and Churches

We have learned with regret and sorrow of the sudden death of Rev. Roland Sherwood, of the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church. Brother Sherwood was living at Bangor, Maine, at the time of his passing, but was for many years pastor of the Alliance Church at Houlton, Maine. He was well known by many of our pastors and people and was often with us at Riverside Camp. He suffered a heart seizure Friday, Sept. 21st. We extend sympathy to the bereaved wife and family.

Eleven candidates were baptized by Rev. Jack Stevens, of Norton, N. B., Sunday, Sept. 23. A large group is to be received into church membership in the near future.

Rev. and Mrs. H. S. Mullen were with our church at Killams Mills, N. B., October 2-7, assisting the pastor, Rev. H. E. Mullen.

A Missionary Convention with the Primitive Baptist churches of Plaster Rock, Lerwick, and Arthurette, N. B., Sept. 2-9, was signally blessed of God according to the report of the pastor, Rev. D. E. Pike, and the guest speakers, Rev. Glendon Kierstead and Miss Uta Chase. Brother Kierstead reports: "The best missionary convention I have ever been in".

OBITUARY

Mrs. Eugene MacFarlane, age 21 years, passed away suddenly Sept. 8th. The funeral service was held from her parents' home at Temperance Vale, N. B. to the R. B. Church at Lower Southampton, and was conducted by Rev. J. A. Owens. Left to mourn are the husband, two-year old daughter, and three-weeks old son, also the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Fox, two sisters, and seven brothers.

Our heartfelt sympathy to those who mourn.

Mrs. Asa Mullen, passed away at the Bath, N. B. hospital recently. The funeral service was held from the Reformed Baptist Church, Havelock, N. S., of which Mrs. Mullen was a member for many years. Mrs. Mullen's husband, Asa, predeceased her twelve years ago. Rev. H. S. Mullen is a brother-in-law, and Mrs. H. M. Kimball a daughter. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. D. C. Webb.

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Hope E. Anderson were held on Wednesday, Sept. 26, 1956. She passed away peacefully on Monday, Sept. 24, at the age of 67.

Surviving are her husband, 2 sons, 5 grandchildren, and 1 great-grandchild.

She had been a member of the Sandford Reformed Baptist Church since 1903. During the last few weeks of her life her testimony was positive and her faith never faltered. The presence of God was very real to her and to those who visited her.

The services were conducted by her pastor, Rev. Karl Gorman, assisted by Rev. W. R. Cairns.

HEATHEN DEVOTION

A woman in India stood by a heathen temple that was in process of construction. A missionary asked her the cost of the building. She looked at her questioner in surprise and answered, "Why, we don't know. It is for our god. We don't count the cost."
