

News and Notes for Young People

Editor: Rev. L. K. Mullen, 172 Pleasant St., Yarmouth, N. S.

FROM BETHANY

Greetings in His name from the Bethany Young People's Society. The election of officers for the year was as follows:

President—John McElhinney

Vice-President—Gerald Carson

Sec.-Treas.—Donna Robertson

Corres. Sec.—Gerald Inman

Pianist—Mary Lou Hughes

Faculty Advisor—Miss Vaunda Moore

Our services are held each Monday night at 6.30.

Our re-elected president brought a message emphasizing prayer at our first service. The following week we enjoyed a time of testimony and a quiz. Last week we were challenged by a message from one of our own Bible students, Lic. Oland Kent.

We have sensed God's presence in a very special way in each service. We are looking forward to a year of victory and blessing.

Our next service will be in the form of a missionary service. Miss Uta Chase will be showing slides of the new site in Rhodesia.

We are praying for God's blessing to rest upon each Young People's Society.

Yours for the cause of Holiness,

Gerald Inman,

Corres. Secy.

LIVINGSTONE ON SACRIFICE

People talk of the sacrifice I have made in spending so much of my life in Africa. Is that a sacrifice which brings its own blessed reward in healthful activity, the consciousness of doing good, peace of mind, and a bright hope of a glorious hereafter? Can that be called sacrifice which is simply paid back as a small part of a debt owing to God which can never be repaid? It is emphatically no sacrifice. It is a privilege.

—David Livingstone

REVIVAL?

The real test for our desire for a revival lies in what we are doing now to win souls for Christ.

THE GREATNESS OF AMERICA

"I sought for the greatness and genius of America in her commodious harbours and her ample rivers, and it was not there; in the fertile fields and boundless prairies, and it was not there; in her rich mines and her vast world commerce, and it was not there. Not until I went into the churches of America, and heard her pulpits aflame with righteousness, did I understand the secret of her genius and power. America is great because she is good, and if America ever ceases to be good, America will cease to be great."—Alexis de Tocqueville.

THE GREATEST OF ALL . . .

My greatest loss—to lose my soul.

My greatest gain—Christ my Savior.

My greatest object—to glorify God.

My greatest crown—to win souls for Christ.

My greatest joy—God's salvation.

My greatest inheritance—heaven and its glory.

My greatest victory—over death through Christ.

My greatest neglect—so great a salvation.

My greatest crime—to reject Christ.

My greatest profit—godliness now and forever.

My greatest peace—passeth all understanding.

My greatest knowledge—to know God and Christ.

NO DRINKERS!

The following advertisement appeared in a Denver newspaper: "Inexperienced man over 30 to train for bartender's position. If you drink, you cannot qualify."

CIGARETTE ARITHMETIC

Said the Cigarette: "I am not much of a mathematician but I can:

Add to a man's nervous trouble;

Subtract from his physical energy;

Multiply his aches and pains;

Divide his mental powers;

Take interest from his work and

Discount his chances for success."

PRAYER AND POWER

No answer comes to those who pray,

Then idly stand,

And wait for stones to roll away

At God's command.

He will not break the binding cords

Upon us laid,

When hands are idle, words are vain

To move the stone;

And aiding angel would disdain

To work alone;

But he who prayeth and is strong

In faith and deed,

And toileth earnestly, ere long

He will succeed.
