BORN

To Rev. and Mrs. B. M. Hicks, September 6, 1956, a daughter, Joan Alberta.

"Prayer is a golden river, at whose brink some people die of thirst, while others kneel down, and drink."

OBITUARY

Mr. Delbert Clark, of Grafton, N. B., passed away at his residence August 18th, after a lingering illness. He was 73 years of age. Mr. Clark was a member of the Woodstock Reformed Baptist Church and for a number of years a regular attendant at Beulah and Riverside Camp Meetings. He is survived by his wife, three daughters, one son and seven grandchildren. After prayers at the house, the funeral service was conducted from the Reformed Baptist Church by Rev. H. R. Ingersoll with music provided by the church choir.

To those who mourn we extend sincere sympathy.

Mrs. Hedley Fawcett, of Nortondale, N. B., passed away in Carleton Memorial Hospital, Woodstock, N. B., Aug. 28th following an operation. Our sister had been in poor health all summer, yet her death came as a great shock to her friends and loved ones.

The funeral service, which was largely attended, was held Aug. 30th at her late home, and was conducted by her former pastor, Rev. J. A. Owens, assisted by Rev. Raymond Priest and the Millville R. B. Choir. The text used by the speaker was, "She hath done what she could", Mark 14:8, a very fitting text, as our sister lived a consistent Christian life since being saved as a young girl.

Mrs. Owens and Mrs. Raymond Smith sang "Beyond the Sunset." Besides her sorrowing husband, she leaves three sons and three daughters, John of Nortondale, Albert of Woodstock, Ivan of Fredericton, and Mrs. Robert Tapley, Hazel and Donna, all of Nortondale.

The floral tributes were beautiful, speaking of the love and esteem in which our sister was held.

Interment was in Nortondale Cemetery. Mrs. Fawcett was a member of the Nortondale Reformed Baptist Church, and a subscriber to The King's Highway for many years.

Douglas Stewart, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hutchinson, passed away at the Sussex Hospital, September the 2nd. He leaves to mourn his passing, besides his parents, one sister, Joan. After prayers at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Carson, interment was made at the Salem Cemetery.

May the Lord comfort the hearts of the sorrowing ones.

H. E. Mullen.

Boys and Girls

THE THREE SIEVES

Betty ran in from school, and called out: "Oh, mother, what do you think of Freda Long? I have just heard that—"

"Wait a minute, my dear," said her mother. "Have you put what you have heard through the three sieves before you tell it to me?"

"Sieves, mother! What do you mean?"

"Well, the first sieve is called Truth. Is it true?"

"Well, I don't really know, but Mary Shaw and Shirley told her that Freda—"

"That's very roundabout. What about the second sieve—Kindness? Is it kind?"

"Kind! No, I can't say it is kind."

"Now the third sieve—Necessity. Will it go through that? Must you tell this tale?"

"No, mother, I need not repeat it."

"Well, then, my dear, if it is neither necessary nor kind and perhaps not true let the story die."
