

SHELBURNE, N. S.

Our new work in the Shelburne and Ingomar areas was blessed recently with a fine baptism, the first in this field.

Seven candidates were baptized and after this number had followed the Lord into the waters, two more Christian men from the crowd, whom the Lord had spoken to, stepped forth and also received the ordinance. The Holy Spirit signally blessed the service with His presence and conviction was noteworthy among the unsaved.

This was the first baptism held in this section for a number of years and many attended. We feel much good was accomplished.

A particular point of interest and blessing was that six members of one family obeyed the Lord together. There were Mr. and Mrs. Merton Goullien, their two sons Carl and Earl, also their wives Shirley and Doris. Then there was Russell Nickerson and his daughter Beatrice, and Richard Nickerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loran Nickerson. Praise the Lord for this outstanding addition to His kingdom.

We feel tremendously encouraged with the work here and are believing God for a mighty revival.

Yours for Souls,
Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Burbury.

The community of Lower Brighton, N. B., was shocked and saddened by the sudden death of Deacon Arnold Brown, which occurred in the Carleton Memorial Hospital, a few hours after he was thrown from his tractor which was in a head on collision with a heavy truck on the road in front of his home. Bro. Brown was highly respected by all who knew him, and his home, church and community, has suffered a great loss in the passing of this godly man. His pastor, Rev. J. A. Owens, conducted the funeral service, which was held in the Reformed Baptist Church, Lower Brighton. Other ministers assisting were: Revs. F. A. Dunlop, F. A. Anderson, Herman Anderson, and Laurence Mullen. Hymns were sung by Mr. and Mrs. Owens, and Lorne Britton. He leaves besides his wife, the former Myra Shaw, one sister, in England, and three brothers; Kenneth, of Fredericton, and Russell and Murray, both of Lower Brighton. Interment was in the near-by Cemetery. Many and beautiful were the floral tributes and many friends gave money to purchase Gideon Bibles in his memory. May God raise up a man of like precious faith to take his place in the affairs of the Kingdom, is our prayer.
