"There are two kinds of crosses—the crosses we choose and the crosses He chooses. Physical strength does not come by visiting soda fountains, neither does spiritual stamina develop under the protection of worldly conformity".

SINCERITY

He that negotiates between God and man,
As God's ambassador, the grand concerns
Of judgment and of mercy, should beware
Of lightness in his speech. 'Tis pitiful
To court a grin, when you should woo a soul
To break a jest, when pity would inspire
Pathetic exhortation and to address
The skittish fancy with facetious tales,
When sent with God's commission to the heart.

—Wm. Cowper

PRAYER

"A task without a vision is drudgery; a vision without a task is a dream; a task with a vision is victory."

By words and works we can but teach or influence a few; by our prayers we may benefit the whole world, and every individual in it, high and low, friend, stranger, and enemy.
