From Woodstock, N. B.

We owe to Highway readers a brief report of recent events in Woodstock. Since assuming pastoral responsibility on August 1, it has been a delightful experience to share again the fellowship of those of other years.

In coming to Woodstock, we found the work of the church in a healthy condition. A spirit of revival is upon the people, new ones are coming to church regularly, and prospects were never better for real spiritual progress. Such conditions did not happen by chance. A great amount of the credit belongs to the godly leadership of former pastors.

Very soon after our arrival we were given a warm welcome by the members and friends of the church in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Fox. At the close of the evening we were presented with a purse of money and an electric tea-kettle. For such thoughtful generosity we can only say "thanks" to these fine people.

Sunday morning service, Nov. 10, was one long to be remembered. The new Hammond organ, installed in the church in the month of June, was officially dedicated. A capacity congregation shared in the act of dedication. The Barker's Point trio were with us as special workers and their music was never more acceptable or appreciated. In the special organ offering, the sum of $802.97 was donated. For such an expression of united sacrifice and loyalty, we not only feel to thank the donors, but also to give God the praise and the glory.

Our primary concern is for a genuine moving of God in our midst that will reach all of us here, and then go beyond our borders to other needy areas. That is the burden of our hearts and we ask you to share that burden with us.

For the privilege of preaching the gospel and of serving a fine and godly people, we humbly give God the praise.

Doaktown, N. B.

Highway Friends:

We arrived here in August to begin our pastorate. At last, after five years of deciding, part-time service and school, I am finally free to devote my life in full-time service for Christ.

The churches of Doaktown and Blissfield were found in good spiritual condition. The former pastor, Rev. Neil Rice, and the people are to be commended for their efforts, work and faithfulness.

Two weddings, the first in the church, were performed since my arrival. Dorothy Bell and Daniel Moorehouse, both of Doaktown, were united in marriage. Also Marilyn O'Donnell, of Carroll's Crossing, and Allison Todd, of Fort Fairfield. Rev. Neil Rice officiated and I assisted.

Street meetings were held in the center of the town on Saturday nights. They proved profitable and we intend to begin again in the spring.

From Sept. 4th - 15th we conducted revival services in our Doaktown church, and October 16th - 27th in Blissfield.

Both efforts were blessed of the Lord. We were blessed in making new contacts, seeing backsliders reclaimed, and the Lord's healing power manifested. Several sought and obtained healing. To mention one, Mother Parker of our Doaktown church, came to service hardly able to walk. She was suffering with a back ailment; could not stand up straight, and had to be helped into the church. Requesting prayer after the service, we laid our hands on her and prayed the prayer of faith. She stood up, began shaking our hands saying, "It's coming, it's coming!" Suddenly she began to praise the Lord. The pain was gone and she was healed. She practically ran out of the church waving her Bible in the air, blessing and praising God. She has not been bothered since. Glory to God.

We have come in knowing our people to love and appreciate them. We enjoy working with them and for them. Our prayer is for greater things to be done in this area.

How we appreciate the honour bestowed upon us to be called of the Lord, and to labour for His Kingdom.

Your prayers for this district are requested.

Yours for lost souls,

Elsie and Ole Kent

"AN OLD MAN GOES HOME TO DIE"

An old man goes home to die. Almost everybody has forgotten now how the Christian movement started, but we who know are very tender to a pilgrim nearing his Heavenly Home. —World Vision News

Fear in Christian service may be traced to the lack of the Spirit's fullness.

If some would pray about their call, they simply might be called to pray.
