BEULAH CAMP 1957

In the good providence of God we have enjoyed another Beulah Camp Meeting. For ten days we were privileged to "sit together in heavenly places" at our beautiful and sacred Beulah Camp Ground. The ministry of the Word was helpful, the singing and music were inspirational and the fellowship was enriching.

Rev. Fred Thomas, Camp Evangelist, laboured fervently and faithfully. He preached the Word without fear or favour and sought with all diligence to persuade his hearers to seek needed spiritual help. Many testified of having received spiritual help under his ministry. The personal friendliness of Brother Thomas was also much appreciated.

Song Evangelist DeVerne Mullen was the Camp song-leader and soloist, and his ministry of music was, as usual, of a high order. His service was especially meaningful because of the circumstances under which he laboured. He came to Camp just a week after his mother's funeral, and his dad, brother Paul, sister-in-law Carrie, and nephew David were still in hospital. So he bore heavy burdens on his heart. But with Christian faith and fortitude DeVerne directed the musical programme of the Camp and thrilled our hearts with his great singing. Mrs. Ralph Hobson and Janet DeLong provided beautiful instrumental music on the Hammond Organ and piano. Others rendered valuable assistance vocally and instrumentally.

There were large altars at this year's Camp and some outstanding victories. Some found Christ for the first time, some returned to God after long, long years of backsliding, and others were sanctified wholly. God alone knows of all the good done around the Tabernacle altars this year.

The Camp did not strike the depth of spiritual power that we had hoped for, nor did we witness the mighty, moving outpouring of the Holy Ghost that we had longed to see. But it was a good Camp Meeting and we sincerely trust that we have been moved a little nearer to that denominational revival for which we have been longing and praying.

JUST AHEAD—RIVERSIDE CAMP

The next major event on our denominational calendar is Riverside Camp Meeting. This spiritual convocation is scheduled to begin Friday, August 9th, and continue over Sunday, August 18th.

Riverside Camp is located in the heart of Maine's beautiful and prosperous Aroostook County, "the potato barrel of the nation." It is a joy to travel to Riverside. The wonderful farms which border Maine's No. 1 Highway, with their expansive fields of potatoes and grain are a sight to behold. While the traveller is still a long distance from his destination, lofty Mars Hill looms up as a guide, a landmark of nature that calls to mind the words, "as the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the Lord is round about His people . . ."

Riverside Camp does not have the facilities that are to be found at Beulah. There is just one hotel-dormitory building and a few cottages. The Tabernacle is larger than the one at Beulah, though lacking the hilltop location. But Riverside Camp Meeting has been a scene of great spiritual blessing. The ministers attending do not have the heavy responsibilities of executive work that must be carried at Beulah, and may therefore give more time and strength to the spiritual programme.

Rev. and Mrs. Gordon Wishart, of Du Bois, Pa., are the engaged evangelists for this year's Riverside Camp Meeting. The Wisharts were with us at Beulah Camp three years ago and were regarded as a most capable team of workers.

Brother Wishart has had nation-wide experience in evangelism in both Canada and United States, and is regarded as one of the outstanding evangelists of the holiness movement. He was preacher at the closing service of this year's meeting of the great National Holiness Association rally in Minneapolis. He is a fine personality and a dynamic speaker. Mrs. Wishart is also a fluent speaker and rates as one of the finest lady evangelists.

Rev. and Mrs. Jack MacKenzie will again have charge of music at Riverside. Jack and Charlene are both well known and well beloved and the announcements of their coming for the camp will be welcomed. Brother MacKenzie has requested that those who play instruments bring them along to assist in the musical programme of the Camp.

Pray for Riverside Camp Meeting. Plan to attend, if possible. Good meals, good fellowship, good service will make your attendance of this Camp Meeting of blessing and profit to body and soul. May the Spirit of God be outpoured upon this year's Camp!
