

Our Superintendent, Rev. F. A. Dunlop, has been visiting churches of Districts No. 1 and 5 during January and February and his ministry has been received with appreciation everywhere.

We are pleased to hear good reports of the new work at Houlton, Maine, through the pastor, Rev. G. A. DeLong. Keep these new works and their leaders on your prayer list.

We have already heard of a number of pastoral changes which will occur this year. We would exhort all who are interested in the welfare of our work to pray that God may guide pastors and churches during this time of important decisions.

Special note to ministers: If ministers who are "open for call" will kindly notify us, we will be glad to present your names in The Highway. We would also request that those who accept calls or recalls notify The Highway editor, so that announcement may be made. In this way churches seeking pastors will not issue calls to those who have already committed themselves for the coming year.

Rev. A. L. Stairs, Centreville, N. B., writes that he is open for a call for the coming church year.

NOTICE

Please make all checks for the General Fund and the Superintendent's Salary made payable to "Alliance of the Reformed Baptist Church."

Thank you,

L. K. MULLEN,

Alliance Treasurer

DISTRICT MEETINGS

The week-end District Meeting of District No. 1 will be held at Marysville, N. B., April 11-14. Attendance of pastors and delegates from each church is anticipated. Churches are also requested to report by letter.

NOTICE

Churches or missionary societies and auxiliaries wishing to engage Miss Uta Chase for missionary and auxiliary meetings may do so by writing her at 62 Wellesley Ave., Saint John, N. B. Miss Chase has an understanding with the Saint John General Hospital, where she is employed, that she will be free to accept a certain number of appointments.

MINISTER'S CONFERENCE AT MARYSVILLE MAY 7 - 9

Let all our ministers plan to attend. We want 100 per cent representation, or as nearly that as possible. An interesting and helpful program is being arranged. You will miss a great stimulus if you miss this Convention. Be one of the fortunate ones. Come! A public service will start us off Tuesday evening at 7:30. We want to make these evening services, throughout the Convention, a great blessing to the entertaining Churches in this area. Begin now to Plan, to Pray, to Promote. Watch for further announcement in The Highway.

F. A. Dunlop

WEDDING

Hutchinson-Teakles—At the Reformed Baptist Church, Norton, N. B., Jan. 26th, Emma Mae Teakles, of Norton, was united in marriage to Howard Watson Hutchinson, of Mercer Settlement, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. Stevens.

THE SECRET OF PEACE

Just to be still, though tempest break;
To know He never would forsake
The heart He made to be His own;
To know He is not King alone,
But Father—infinite in care
Of every waif that breathes the air;
If this be mine, how light the weight
I bear through changing time's estate.

—Emmanuel

CANDLELIGHT

Distressed, I looked out on the world
So torn by strife and sin,
And felt a thrill of thankfulness
For calm and peace within.
But pity surged up in my soul,
And through my tears I prayed:
"Oh, blessed Lord, how can I help
Lost souls, forlorn and strayed?
I wish I had an angel's voice
To sing of Thy great love,
Or moving eloquence to make
Their hearts to look above.
I'd like to be a tall lighthouse
So drifting lives might see
My streaming ray, and in its path
Come safely home to Thee.
But I am small and useless, Lord,
There's little I can do."
Then, all at once, a whisper came,
"The Lord needs candles, too."
"Oh, wilt thou light my candle?"
I cried with heart aglow;
Perhaps some soul will see its flame,
And know the way to go."
So let Him light your candle!
Although it may seem dim,
A thousand candles burning
Will guide a host to Him!
