LET'S FACE IT

of a changed life, inside and outside. And if the inside experience doesn't alter the outside appearance it is of dubious worth. Right? And is it not possible that some, indeed many, twentieth century Christian women are forfeiting a magnificent opportunity of being a bit different for Jesus' sake?

Now, sometimes the weaker sex point at the men and say "This applies to you, too." In that they are correct for it is true that a man by unduly gaudy, ornate and highly decorative apparel can lose some of the potency of his testimony. Let both sexes, then, give heed to the principle found in Romans 14:23, "... whatsoever is not of faith is sin." As followers of the lowly Nazarene we should be unhesitatingly willing to waive any privileges about which there is a question. "For even Christ pleased not himself..." (Roman 15:3)

A SERIOUS BUSINESS

The Christian life is never represented as a picnic, but as something strenuous; a race, a contest, a fight, a journey with a cross. The promise of a soft life would appeal to very few, for such a life could not be productive of nobility and heroism. It would only make invalids, not men and women.

OBITUARY

Napoleon R. Beal, of Jonesport, Maine, passed away on Jan. 23rd., after a lengthy and painful illness. He was born at Beals, Sept. 23, 1878.

"Grampie", as he was known to us, was one of the oldest and most beloved members of our church, and was faithful in his attendance as long as he was able to be out. His testimony bore witness of God's marvelous grace and power to save and keep us in the midst trials and testings of our faith, and gives us courage to go on trusting Him in these trying and troublesome days.

He is survived by his wife, Sara J. Beal, four sons; John, James, Roosevelt, and Arlen; and four daughters, Mrs. Phebe Chandler, Mrs. Leola Barnes, Mrs. Phyllis Beal, and Mrs. Elva Crawley; all of Jonesport. One son, Lyman, died suddenly eight months ago.

Funeral service was conducted by Rev. James A. Blinn, Pastor of R. B. Church, Jonesport, assisted by Revs. S. G. Hilyard, R. H. Nicholson and G. Green, pastor of the United Pentecostal Church, West Jonesport.

To the sorrowing ones we extend our heartfelt sympathy.

N. H. A. CONVENTION

The 90th Annual Convention of the National Holiness Association will be held April 8-10, 1958, at Hotel Sherman in Chicago. Announcement was made by the Executive Committee at its November 7th meeting in Chicago.

The Executive Director, Dr. Paul L. Kindschi, said the theme of the convention will be, PROCLAIMING THE WESLEYAN MESSAGE. Seven public addresses will be delivered by leaders in the movement. Daily seminars will be conducted in the areas of doctrine, evangelism, education, missions, camp meetings, Christian homes, youth, Sunday Schools, and visual aids.

The Executive Committee is composed of Dr. Myron F. Boyd, director and speaker of the Light and Life Hour radio broadcast; Dr. Paul S. Rees, pastor of the First Covenant Church of Minneapolis, Minnesota; Dr. Roy S. Nicholson, president of the Wesleyan Methodist Church of America; Bishop Leslie R. Marston, senior bishop of the Free Methodist Church of North America; the Reverend Kenneth E. Geiger, general superintendent of the United Missionary Church; and Morris W. Davis, Nazarene layman of Indianapolis, Indiana. These men represent a constituency of 21 Holiness denominations, 160 state and county auxiliary groups, 60 colleges and seminaries, and 12 foreign missionary boards, all of which espouse the experience of the infilling of the Holy Spirit along lines of the Wesleyan distinctiveness.

The National Holiness Association, with offices at 1128 Metropolitan Building, Minneapolis, Minnesota, is launching the most aggressive program of its 91 years of service. Dr. Kindschi reports that he "finds a new surge of interest in the deeper life among evangelicals everywhere." He adds that "we of the Wesleyan persuasion are more interested in uniting our witness with all for a real movement of the Holy Ghost than we are in insisting on certain shibboleths of the past."

A WALK PLEASING TO GOD

Every life is a preaching life. Are you walking in love? Is that your manner and habit? Walking by faith? Is that the standard of your conduct? Does your life illumine as you pass by? Do people feel the better because they have seen you? Does seeing you lift all their thoughts to a loftier plane, and make the day a cleaner day?
