

THE MINISTRY OF BOOKS

for reading which can fortify them against the misrepresentations of pseudo-science. They will be happy to discover that undistorted scientific truth is not at variance with their faith, and that many of what they are asked to accept as facts are only the discredited hypotheses of yesterday. They will be glad to learn that research corroborates the Word of God. The sneers of would-be educators lost much of their virulence when it is known that leaders of thought in all ages, including our own, hold the same simple faith in Christ that they and their parents do. Here is a fertile field for the ministry of books.

In your circle of friends and associates is also ample opportunity for the ministry of books which may be loaned or given to those who need their help. Stories, biographies, meditations, poems, if carefully selected, are potent influences for good. Among shut-ins and the sick, where time drags slowly by, the weary hours may be brightened by proper reading.

Of all the agencies at our disposal, there is none more versatile and more adaptable than the printed word; and there is none that for so small an expenditure of money can do so much good in so great a variety of circumstances.

But useful as books in general are, there is one Book that is unique, the ministry of which means Life Eternal. Let it be our first concern that this Book of books has ministered to our own lives and that it shall continue to do so. Then let it be our firm resolve that it, above all others, shall minister to those we serve.

DEATHS

Mr. Clarence Dow, of Calais, Maine, passed away very suddenly in Charlotte County Hospital, St. Stephen, Tuesday, Dec. 9th. He was 52 years of age. Death followed a very brief illness.

Brother Dow was a faithful member of the Reformed Baptist Church of Calais for many years, and was known in his church and community as a man who was zealous in his concern for the salvation of men and the advancement of the work of God. He was a staunch supporter of the doctrine of holiness and was a familiar figure at our Beulah Camp, which he attended each year.

Surviving are the widow, the former Emma Trafton: one daughter, Barbara; and three sisters, Mrs. Allen Stillings, (Muriel), of Rosendale, Mass; Ruth, of Brookline, Mass.; and Mrs. Verne Tagerman, (Lois), of Wrentham, Mass.

The funeral service was held in the Calais R. B. Church Thursday, Dec. 11th., and was conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. A. Moses. Rev. and Mrs. N. E. Trafton sang favourite hymns.

To all who mourn the loss of loved ones, we extend Christian sympathy.

Mrs. Harry Owens, of Royalton, N. B., passed away Dec. 2nd., 1958, following a stroke. The funeral was held from her late home Dec. 4th, and was conducted by Rev. J. A. Owens, assisted by Lic. Kenneth Gorvette, Revs. L. H. Hicks and A. L. Stairs. Mrs. J. A. Owens, Mrs. Leslie Hicks, and Mrs. Lorne Britton sang favourite hymns. A large crowd and a profusion of flowers bespoke the esteem of many friends of the deceased. Mrs. Owens was a member of the Royalton R. B. Church.

Interment was in the Royalton Cemetery.

Baby Marlene Palmer, eight months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Palmer, of Fredericton, N. B., died suddenly Jan. 4th. The funeral service was held from the J. A. McAdam Funeral Home and was conducted by Rev. B. C. Cochrane. Interment was at Bloomfield Ridge, N. B.

To all who mourn the loss of loved ones, we extend Christian sympathy.

Mrs. John Morrison of North Head, Grand Manan, N. B., better known as "Dassie" slipped away quietly to be with Jesus on the morning of Dec. 4, 1958.

Sister Morrison had been in failing health for a number of years. She had been bedridden since 1920, but even in this condition she was always happy in the Lord, and bore a bright testimony to all who came to visit her. She often remarked in the later days of her stay here that she was "just waiting for the summons and to hear Him say, "Child, come home". This became a reality to her at last.

Surviving is one sister, Mrs. Thomas Morgan of North Head; a nephew, Mr. Keith Morgan of North Head; and a host of friends.

The funeral service was held at the North Head Reformed Baptist Church, Dec 7th, and was conducted by Rev. J. A. MacKenzie, assisted by Rev. D. E. Betts.

Songs sung were, "A land where we'll never grow old", and "Zion's Hill".

Our prayerful sympathy to all who mourn the loss of this loved one.
