Pastors and people—pray, plan, and work for a record-breaking Easter offering for foreign missions. Have you read the "More For Missions" editorial?

Special prayer is requested for all pastors and churches at this vitally important time of year. Let us seek divine aid and guidance as "call meetings" are held and decisions made concerning pastoral leadership for the year or years before us.

NOTICE TO CHURCHES

Each church has been requested by the Alliance to contribute the amount of $6.50 per year as partial payment of the minister's insurance plan. To date, the following churches have been heard from:

Old Town, Saint John, Meductic, Beals, Sandford, Moncton, Marysville and Westchester.

If the name of your church is not listed, please let us hear from you as soon as possible.

L. K. Mullen,
Alliance Treasurer.

DEATHS

In this soft age the sterner character of God is seldom portrayed. The writer to the Hebrews declares, "our God is a consuming fire."

DEATHS

Mr. Walter Hayes, of Head of Millstream, passed away at his home, Jan. 16 following a lengthy period of illness. He was 82 years of age.

Brother Hayes was known throughout this area a godly man. His genuine character and friendliness will be missed by many.

Surviving are the widow, Edna Hayes; one daughter (Marjorie) Mrs. Earl Shields of Sussex; a son, Avard at home; a foster son, Thomas Cattam, at home; one brother, Alexander Hayes of Millstream; two grand children and several nieces and nephews.

The funeral was held at the R. B. Church, Head of Millstream, Jan. 18, and was conducted by the pastor, Rev. B. L. Brown, with Rev. Fraser Dunlop and Rev. Hartley Mullen assisting.

Interment was in the adjoining cemetery.

Mrs. Dora K. Pyne, 87, of Lowell, Mass., well known in New Brunswick and Aroostook County, Maine, from having visited the Beulah Camp meetings at Brown's Flats, N. B., and the Riverside Camp meetings in Robinson, Maine, also attended special evangelistic services in various Reformed Baptist Churches in this vicinity, died in the Winchester Mass., Hospital Jan. 28th, her funeral being held in Winchester Jan. 30th. Burial was in North Billerica, Mass.

Mrs. Pyne was born in Hartland, N. B., Jan 31, 1871 a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murdock Matheson. Her husband David H. Pyne died about 27 years ago. Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Mary P. Cameron of Winchester, Mass.; a son, Dr. David V. Pyne of Washington, D. C.; two grandsons, Fred Cameron of Winchester and David Cameron of Glen Rock, N. J.; nine great grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Christine Barss of Moncton, N. B., and Mrs. Emma Keith of Hartland, N. B., and a brother, Donald Matheson of Haney, B. C.

Mrs. Pyne spent the summers from 1951 to 1956 inclusive, also the past summer in Fort Fairfield, Maine, with Mrs. Vastelie M. Cheney, besides many other shorter visits in Fort Fairfield and her old home in Hartland for the past 30 years. She was a former member of a Nazarene Church in Los Angeles, Calif., where she lived for 16 or more years, but at the time of her death was a member of the Nazarene Church in Lowell. While in Fort Fairfield she attended the Reformed Baptist Church. Her splendid Christian testimonies to the saving, sanctifying and keeping power of her Lord and Savior were a help to all who heard her.

Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Peabody, 76, widow of Captain Ami L. Peabody, died at the home of a daughter in Cutler January Fifth, following a long illness.

Mrs. Peabody was born at North Head, Grand Manan. She spent most of her life in Beals and resided in Cutler during the past year. Sister Peabody was loved by all in this community. She was a member of the Reformed Baptist Church.

Surviving are four sons, two daughters, one half-brother. The service was held in the Reformed Baptist Church, and conducted by her pastor.

May God bless the bereaved ones.

James Gilmour, the pioneer missionary to Mongolia, was a man of prayer. He had the habit in his writing of never using a blotter. He made it a rule when he got to the bottom of any page to wait until the ink dried and spend the time in prayer. That kind of habit drives prayer right into all the chinks and corners of our lives like the mortar that holds the building stones together.—Selected.
